DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

October 21/22, 1983

On behalf of the members of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, I wish to extend sincere appreciation to Katherine W. Day, who served this Convention faithfully as Secretary from 1975 until 1983.

Gene's skill, competence, faithfulness and good nature deeply enhanced the quality of our precedings; she will be greatly missed by all of us.

We thank God for her wonderful ministry.

FIRST BUSINESS SESSION: Friday afternoon — Administration

The 200th Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled in the Church of the Saviour, 38th and Ludlow Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on Friday, October 21, 1983.

The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby, Bishop of Pennsylvania and President of the Convention, opened the meeting with the singing of a hymn and with prayer at 3:30 p.m. The Bishop appointed three Parliamentarians: William White, Esq., Duffield Ashmead, III, Esq., and Stewart Dalzell, Esq.

The Bishop nominated Katherine W. Day for the office of Secretary of Convention (DC 3.2.1). This was confirmed. Mrs. Day's appointment of the Rev. John F. Hardwick, Mrs. Constance C. Medaugh, and Janice M. Duncan as Assistant Secretaries was also confirmed.

Miss Ruth Fiesel, Chair of the Committee for Convention Planning, presented her committee's memo on arrangements.

The Rev. James Sox presented the proposed agenda (SRO #2). This was approved. The agenda is attached to these minutes as Appendix #1.

The Secretary reported that there was no unfinished business from the 199th Convention.

The Secretary called Convention's attention to the Canon of Courtesy (DC 2.9). This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #2.

The following resolution was moved and adopted:

R-16: RESOLUTION OF COURTESY: THE REV. ROBERT GREER, CALVARY-ST. PAUL CHURCH, PHILADELPHIA

WHEREAS, the Rev. Robert Greer, an ordained Presbyterian minister, has been duly appointed Minister-in-Charge of the Episcopal congregation (St. Paul's) of the combined Episcopal-Presbyterian congregation of Calvary-St. Paul's, Philadelphia, since April 5, 1971; and

WHEREAS, the Rev. Robert Greer has been regularly seated in each Convention since his appointment;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this 200th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania welcomes the Rev. Mr. Greer and extends to him the privilege of a seat and a voice in this Convention.

The Secretary called the Convention's attention to the following items:

1. SR #26: Concerning Religious Professed in Orders. This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #3.
2. SO IV.6: Youth Representation. This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #4.
3. DC 2.9: Clergy Not Eligible to Vote: This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #5.
4. DCon. Art. IV.5, Congregations which have not Qualified for Representation. The Secretary reported that there were none.

The Secretary called the Convention's attention to SR #25, Circulation of Literature at Convention. This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #6.

On Claims of Clergy to Seats, DC 2.2; 2.3; SR #1; SO.II.5(5a); DCon

IV.1. The Rev. Louis H. Temme, Chair, reported that there were no claims by the clergy.

On Claims of Laity to Seats, DC 2.4,5,6; 2.8; SR #2, DCon IV.2.3: Dr. John Norton, Chair, reported that there were no claims by the laity.

DC 1.4, SO II.5c: John Butterworth, Esq., for the Committee on Incorporation, moved the following resolution which was adopted:

RE-A-2: AMENDMENT TO "PROPOSED BY-LAWS FOR AN INCORPORATED CHURCH" AS CONTAINED IN CONSTITUTION AND CANONS (1982 EDITION)

RESOLVED, that Article 1, Sec. 1 of "Proposed By-Laws for an Incorporated Church" as the same appears in the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese (1982 Edition) be amended to read:

ARTICLE 1
Of the Members of the Corporation
and the Qualification of Voters

Sec. 1. The members of the Corporation qualified to vote at elections of members of the vestry and on all questions which may come before any meeting of the Corporation shall be those persons otherwise qualified under Article 6 of the Articles of Incorporation who shall appear on the books of the Corporation to have contributed to its support not less than five dollars per year in the calendar year in which such election or meeting is being held and in the calendar year immediately preceding such calendar year. (underscoring reflects amendment)

DC 4.2.3. David C. Auten, Chairman, reported for the Committee on Constitution and Canons. His report is attached as Appendix #7.

Stewart Dalzell, Esq. spoke to the third RESOLVED of R-4 (complete) and noted that this represents a distillation of reports coming out of deanery meetings.

The Secretary then asked Convention to affirm that they had received a copy of Alterations to the Constitution to be finally acted upon at the General Convention in 1985. This was affirmed and is attached to these minutes as Appendix #8.

Katherine W. Day, Chair, Committee on Elections (SO.V) called on Mrs. Jean Weir, Chair of the Nominating Committee. Mrs. Weir presented the slate of nominees to the Convention.

The Secretary then asked for nominations from the floor (SO.V.6). There were none. It was moved and adopted that the nominations be closed. The Rev. John Midwood, Judge of Elections, explained the voting procedure and the first ballot was cast for:

Standing Committee: one clergyperson and one layperson
Church Advocate: one layperson, learned in the law
Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions: one clergyperson and one layperson

The Secretary was directed to cast an unanimous vote for the confirmation of the following to the Cathedral Chapter:

The Rev. John D. Clark
Mr. Robert D. Coughlin
The Rev. V. Richard Hawkins
Mr. Andrew McA. Hunter

THE EPISCOPAL FUNCTION

The Rev. James A. Trimble, President of the Standing Committee, reported on the problem of the location and housing of the Bishop and his staff. This was a specific part of the report of the Standing Committee and is attached to these minutes as Appendix #9.

The Bishop introduced his staff and they stood for applause. The names of these persons are attached to these minutes as Appendix #10.

Mr. George Soule, Clergy Deployment Officer, introduced the clergy new to the diocese since Convention last. This list is attached to these minutes as Appendix #11.

It was announced that this was the last Convention, as active parish clergy, for the Rev. Thomas W.S. Logan, Sr., the Rev. Roy J. Hendricks, and the Rev. Kenneth C. Werner.

The Bishop thanked Diocesan Council for all of its fine hard work over the past year. Council members (listed elsewhere in the Journal) stood for applause.

By a 2/3 vote, Convention agreed to hear a report scheduled on the Agenda for Saturday. The Rev. John F. Leser, retiring Ecumenical Officer of the Commission on Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations, reported for the Commission. This report is attached as Appendix #12.

The Rev. James A. Trimble, on a point of personal privilege, presented the Bishop with new vestments for the eucharist in celebration of the 200th Anniversary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

5:00 p.m. Convention was recessed for 15 minutes.

5:15 p.m. Special Event #1: "The Many Faces of Ministry"

5:30 p.m. The Holy Eucharist was celebrated with the Bishop presiding and giving his Convention Address, which is attached to these minutes as Appendix #13.

7:00 p.m. Special Event #2:

The 200th Convention reception and banquet was held at the Bellevue Stratford Hotel. The guest speaker was the Most Rev. John M. Allin, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church of the United States. His address is attached to these minutes as Appendix #14.

SECOND BUSINESS SESSION: Saturday morning

7:45 a.m. The Holy Eucharist was celebrated in the Chapel, Church of the Saviour. The Rev. James A. Trimble presided.

8:45 a.m. Special Event #3:

A Hymn Sing was held with Mr. William A. Riley, Chairman, Diocesan Music Committee, conducting.

9:05 a.m. The Bishop opened the meeting with prayer.

The Rev. John Midwood and Mr. Jefferson Moak reported on the results of the first ballot. Elected were:

Lay Member of Standing Committee: Mary Jane Baker
Church Advocate: Lewis Van Dusen, Jr., Esq.

The Rev. Richard J. Risser withdrew his name from the slate of clerical nominees for Standing Committee.

The second ballot was cast for:

Standing Committee: one clergy person
Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions: one clergy person and one layperson

THE EPISCOPAL FUNCTION (Continued)

The Rev. James A. Trimble, President of the Standing Committee, moved the following resolution which was adopted by a show of hands:

R-14: PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

BE IT RESOLVED that the second sentence of Art. VIII of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended to read as follows:

> At their first meeting, they shall elect one of their members to be President, and another of their members to be Secretary.

N.B. Art. X of the Constitution requires that any amendment be approved at two successive Conventions "by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately..."

The old sentence of Art. VIII read as follows:

> At their first meeting, they shall elect one of their Clerical members to be President, and another of their members to be Secretary.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE FUNCTION

Mr. Philip G. Howse, Treasurer, gave the Treasurer's report, which is attached to these minutes as Appendix #15.

John L. Harrison, Jr., Esq., Chair, Committee on Finance and Property, for the Committee moved the following resolution:

R-12: RESOLUTION FOR THE 200TH CONVENTION RELATING TO THE PROCEDURES FOR FUNDING THE DIOCESAN PROGRAM BUDGET

RESOLVED, that this 200th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania directs the Diocesan Council, through its Committee on Finance and Property, or such other group as the Bishop may appoint, to (1) review the procedures and canonical provisions for funding the Diocesan Program Budget (including Canons 7.2, 7.3, and 7.4 relating to the assessments for the support of the Episcopate and Convention and Diocesan Expense); (2) report to the 201st Convention on the results of such review; and (3) prepare and submit to the 201st Convention for action any amendments to the Constitution or Canons of the Diocese that may be indicated as a result of such review in order to strengthen or otherwise improve procedures for funding the Diocesan Program Budget.

FURTHER RESOLVED, that this 200th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania substitutes the foregoing Resolution in place of the Resolution adopted by the 199th Convention which directed Diocesan Council to prepare amendments to Canons 7.2, 7.3, and 7.4 for submission to the 201st Convention.

An amendment by Dr. John Norton was defeated by a show of hands and the resolution was adopted. Dr. Norton moved to challenge the vote and overrule the chair. This motion was defeated by a 2/3 majority.

The Rev. John Midwood and Mr. Jefferson Moak reported on the results of the results of the second ballot. Elected were:

Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions: The Rev. David S. Dod, Clerical Member; Mr. William J. Burke, Sr., Lay Member

The Rev. Mark A. Scheneman, The Rev. Michael J. Campbell, and the Rev. Glenn M. Matis all withdrew their names as nominees for clergyperson for Standing Committee.

The third ballot was cast for Clerical Member of Standing Committee.

The Rev. Roger Pickering moved the following resolution:

R-4 (Complete): RESOLUTION: ON FUTURE SUPPORT FOR THE WORK OF THE CHURCH

RESOLVED that the congregations of the diocese commit themselves to meeting the 1984 Guidelines for Giving (a stated percentage of disposable income with the tithe as the minimum standard) or, if necessary, the Interim Guideline (which is a measured, percent step toward the Guideline), and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that all congregations commit themselves to supporting first and foremost, among all outside ministries, the mission strategy and programs of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and the Episcopal Church nationally as they are described in the Diocesan Program Budget, adopted annually at Convention, and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that the congregations call upon

a) the Diocesan Council, with Bishop's staff, to develop and implement a plan to bring to the leaders of the congregations vivid and visionary presentations of the mission strategy and programs of the diocese annually, and further

b) call upon the Bishop and Standing Committee to seek to resolve the situation of the Diocesan headquarters promptly and in such a way as will reflect not only sound economic judgment but also an understanding of the symbolic significance of the location, and further

c) call upon Diocesan Council to ensure that additional income from congregations to the 1984 Program Budget, over and beyond the present proposed fugure, be used first to restore funding to Diocesan programs adversely affected in the budget as presently proposed.

An amendment by Dr. Charles Kapps was defeated. An amendment by the Rev. Randolph Williamson was defeated. Convention agreed to put the question. The Rev. Warren Shaw and four deputies called for a vote by orders. The clerical order carried. The lay order carried. The resolution was adopted.

11:00 a.m. Special Order #1:

Mrs. Karey Smith, President of Episcopal Churchwomen, gave her report which is attached to these minutes as Appendix #16.

11:10 a.m. Special Order #2:

The Rev. Robert DuBose and the Rev. David M. Gracie moved the following resolution which was unanimously adopted by a moment of standing silence:

R-15: RESOLUTION HONORING CITY COUNCILMAN JOHN C. ANDERSON

RESOLVED: that this 200th Convention gives thanks for the life and lay ministry of City Councilman John C. Anderson, member of St. Thomas' Church, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Jesse F. Anderson, who departed this life on October 3, 1983.

"With steadfast purpose, he faithfully served in his office to promote the well-being of all people."

The Rev. James A. Trimble moved the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

R-17: ORDINATION ANNIVERSARIES

WHEREAS, the Diocese of Pennsylvania has been blessed by the ministries of many clergy who have served God in His Church for many years;

BE IT RESOLVED that this 200th Convention return thanks to Almighty God for these clergy who, this year, are celebrating milestone anniversaries of their Ordination to the Priesthood:

|---|---|
| Frederick B. Halsey | 65th |
| Harry S. Longley | 60th |
| Edward Platts | 50th |
| William X Smith | 50th |
| William R.S. Donaghy | 45th |
| T. Norman Mason | 45th |
| Peter Van der Hiel | 45th |
| Francis P. Davis | 40th |
| Walter E. Frieman | 40th |
| Lawrence Mills | 40th |
| John A. Schultz | 40th |
| J. Brooke Mosley | 30th anniversary of |
| Lyman C. Ogilby | consecration as bishops |

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the clergy named.

The Rev. James A. Trimble moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

R-18: RECENTLY RETIRED CLERGY

WHEREAS, the following clergy long active in the ministry of the Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania have retired since the 199th Convention;

BE IT RESOLVED that this 200th Convention honor them for their long service in this branch of the Holy Catholic Church, and pray for their continued ministry in another phase of His Work:

Robert B. MacDonald
Walter K. Malone
John A. Schultz

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the clergy named.

The Rev. John Midwood reported on the result of the third ballot: Elected was:

Clergy Member of Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions:

The Rev. Charles L. Poindexter

The Rev. William Wood moved to reopen the discussion of R-4. This was defeated by a voice vote. The Rev. Robert DuBose moved to recount the previous question by orders. This was defeated.

| | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Vote by orders: | Clergy - | 112 | yes | Lay - 121 | yes |
| | | 11 | no | 28 | no |

A motion by the Rev. Andrew Mead to go into a committee of the whole for fifteen minutes was defeated.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE FUNCTION

Andrew McA. Hunter, Chair, for the Program/Budget Committee, moved R-3: Resolutions: Proposed Diocesan Program Budget for 1984. An amendment by the Rev. Leighton Erb was adopted. The Rev. Roger Pickering moved to go into a committee of the whole for ten minutes. This carried.

12:15 p.m. Miss Ruth Fiesel led the Convention in noonday prayers. The Bishop recessed the Convention for luncheon for one hour.

1:25 p.m. The Bishop called the Convention to order. Discussion on R-3 continued. An amendment by the Rev. Elyse Bradt was defeated. A motion to go into a committee of the whole was defeated by a 2/3 vote.

The following resolution as amended by the Rev. Leighton Erb was adopted:

R-3: RESOLUTIONS: PROPOSED DIOCESAN PROGRAM BUDGET FOR 1984

RESOLUTION A:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 200th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania adopts the proposed Diocesan Program Budget for 1984, as presented by the Diocesan Program Budget Committee and adopted for presentation by Diocesan Council.

RESOLUTION B:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 200th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania continues the practice of suspending Diocesan Canons 7.2, 7.3 and 7.4, which are concerned with assessments for the Support of the Episcopate and for Convention and Diocesan expense.

Note: "Note 1, p. 102, Journal, 192nd Annual Convention:
The 187th Diocesan Convention on October 3, 1970 passed the following resolution which has been reaffirmed at each successive Diocesan Convention:

RESOLVED, that Diocesan Convention, at its meeting held October 2 and 3, 1970, accepts and approves the elimination for budgetary purposed of the Assessment on each parish and mission and the combining of the Assessment and Missionary budget into a single budget. (This support of the office of the Bishop is and must be a first priority and obligation under this method of developing the budget.)"

RESOLUTION C:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 200th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania authorizes that the following procedures be employed by Diocesan Council for reviewing the income and expenditures called for in the 1984 Diocesan Program Budget:

(1) The receipt of the final pledge from each congregation by December 31, 1983; but no later than January 31, 1984.

(2) The amendment of the 1984 Diocesan Program Budget by Diocesan Council at any time during 1984 if the total income differs significantly from the total anticipated in the 1984 Diocesan Program Budget, as adopted by Diocesan Convention.

Note: The above procedures have been adopted annually by Diocesan since the 187th Diocesan Convention, October 1970.

RESOLUTION D:

RESOLVED, to enhance the enthusiasm for support of the Diocesan Budget, this 200th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania calls on the Bishop to take appropriate steps to reconcile those who have been alienated from its ranks over the past two decades.

Dr. John Norton withdrew Resolution R-13 from the agenda. The Rev. John Scott moved that R-13 be moved. The Rev. Warren Davis moved R-13. The parliamentarian said that Convention was in error in allowing R-13 back on the agenda without a 2/3 vote. The Rev. Edgar Adams moved that R-13 be put back on the agenda. By a 2/3 vote it was defeated and R-13 was not allowed back on the agenda.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE FUNCTION (Continued)

The Rev. Donald Simpson, for the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions, moved the following resolution which was adopted:

R-9: RESOLUTION: ASSESSMENT

RESOLVED: That the Clergy Financial Assistance Assessment be reduced from the 1983 level of $50,000 to $40,000 for 1984.

Explanation: This assessment was increased in 1983 from $20,000 to $50,000 to meet the increasing drain on existing funds. For 1983 the needs appear to have stabilized at a somewhat lower level than expected, so that the lower figure seems adequate for 1984.

The Rev. Donald Simpson, for the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions, moved the following resolution. A motion to amend by the Rev. John Chisholm was defeated by a show of hands. The original motion was adopted.

R-8: RESOLUTION: DENTAL INSURANCE

RESOLVED: That Convention defer adoption of the Group Dental program which was required to be presented to this Convention, which would provide the following benefits:

| Initial Premiums | Quarterly | Annual |
|---|---|---|
| Single Person | $ 31.44 | $125.76 |
| Including family with orthodontia | $150.63 | $602.52 |
| Maximum Benefits | | |
| Orthodontia, maximum (lifetime) | $1,000.00 | |
| All other treatments and procedures for each person during a calendar year | $1,500.00 | |
| Percentage of charges payable: | | |
| For examinations including routine x-rays, routine cleaning, scaling and curretage; and for children under 19 years of age one Flouride treatment per year | 100% | |
| For all other treatments and procedures | 85% | |
| For Orthodontia | 50% | |
| Deductibles | | |
| (Does not apply for 100% payable charges) | | |
| Per person, per calendar year | $25 | |
| Per family, three or more persons | $75 | |
| Basis of Payment: | | |
| Based on levels for comparable services that are usual and customary for area in which performed | | |

Explanation

Even with the substantial premiums (which would be in addition to approximately $2,300/year for medical and life insurance benefits), coverage would be limited, with deductibles, co-insurance and overall limits. Further, medical and dental insurance costs have been increasing faster than overall costs, so that substantial premium increases must be anticipated in future years.

Finally, establishment of a plan would require extra costs for administrative burden in the Diocesan Staff not now budgeted (and estimated to be at least $4,000 per year), plus costs of coverage for retiress and staff—some $30,000 per year.

The Rev. Donald Simpson, for the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions, moved the following resolution which was adopted:

R-5: RESOLUTION: SALARIES, FULL-TIME EMPLOYMENT

RESOLVED: That the policy of relating cash salary ranges (exclusive of housing and utility allowances) to a level approximately 30% below the Average of cash salary practices for non-profit organizations be continued, with the range midpoint continuing to be the appropriate salary for a thoroughly competent incumbent of significant tenure, and that range midpoints to become effective January 1, 1984 shall be:

| Responsibility Level of Position | Key Definition | Current 1983 Midpoint | Cash Salary Midpoint Effective 1/1/84 |
|---|---|---|---|
| A | Intern | $16,100 | $17,100 |
| B | Curate | $17,800 | 18,800 |
| C | Rector/Vicar Small Parish | 21,200 | 22,000 |
| D | " " Medium Parish | 23,600 | 24,400 |
| E | " " Med-Lg Parish | 28,100 | 28,600 |
| F | " " Large Parish | 31,600 | 31,900 |
| G | " " Very Lg Parish | 35,700 | 35,700 |

FURTHER RESOLVED: That ranges shall extend 22.5% above and below the midpoint instead of the 25% of the past, so that for each range the Minimum shall be 77.5% of the Midpoint, and the Maximum shall be 122.5% of the Midpoint.

Explanation

This reinforces and extends past policies adopted by Convention in successive years since 1975. Because the 1984 increase in midpoints is modest (4% or less for Grades C and above), this is an opportune time to narrow the too-broad ranges by a modest 2.5 percentage points so that increases in the Minimum will range from 7% to 2.5% for Grades C and above.

The Rev. Donald Simpson, for the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions, moved the following resolution which was adopted:

R-6: RESOLUTION: COMPENSATING PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT

RESOLVED: That 1984 guidelines for compensating clergy for supply work, interim assignments and part-time work shall be established, as follows:

| | Sunday Supply One Service | Sunday Supply One Full Day | Interim or Part-time Per Day |
|---|---|---|---|
| Minimum | $50 | $65 | $85 |
| Usual Range | $55 to $95 | $70 to $120 | $95 to $160 |
| Maximum | $105 | $140 | $180 |

RESOLVED FURTHER: That Interim or Part-time arrangements shall include, in addition to cash salaries, pro-rata payments (paid directly to the Carrier and/or Fund) for Church Pension Fund assessments and premiums for medical/hospitalization insurance, unless they are waived or covered in some other way.

Explanation

This resolution adopts formally guidelines applied by the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions for several years. In any case, a parish is obligated to pay Church Pension Fund assessments for any of the clergy who are employed for three months or more and earn $50 or more per month, unless already on pension.

The Rev. Donald Simpson, for the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions, moved the following resolution which was adopted:

R-7: RESOLUTION: ALLOWANCES AND EXPENSES

RESOLVED: That previous Convention resolutions on allowances and reimbursements for "business related" expenses be reaffirmed, as follows:

*Unless church-furnished housing and utilities are provided, an adequate allowance shall be provided to cover the cost of appropriate housing, including utilities, which in no case should be less than 30% of cash salary.

*All "business" expenses, e.g., those expenses which would routinely be reimbursed in secular employment, shall be reimbursed (and provided for in adequate allowances in parish budgets).

*Where personal autos are used, the automobile allowance should be either:

(1) the Internal Revenue Service published standard (which currently is a mileage allowance relating to miles in use), plus reimbursement of tolls and parking fees, or

(2) a budgeted monthly allowance designed to cover the actual cost of automobile operations.

Explanation

There seems to be a continuing need to emphasize the importance of an appropriate, competitive cash salary plus appropriate, adequate allowances and/or reimbursement of "reasonable and necessary" expenses incurred in conduct of the parish and clergy affairs.

Mr. Geoffrey Stengel, Executive Director, reported for the Church Foundation. His report is attached to these minutes as Appendix #17.

RESOLVED, that this Convention commends the statement, To the Church in Pennsylvania - A Call to Faithful Witness, to the attention of delegates to this 200th Convention of the Diocese and to the members of the parishes and missions whom they represent.

This statement is attached to these minutes as Appendix #24.

Mr. Walter Baker moved the following resolution which was adopted:

R-2: RESOLUTION FOR THE 200TH CONVENTION

RESOLVED that this Convention requests the Bishop and Diocesan Council:

(1) To establish means of bringing the Jubilee Ministry Program of the General Convention before all congregations in the Diocese so that all parishioners will have an opportunity to become familiar with it and.

(2) To provide all possible help to those seeking to respond to this challenge.

Walter C. Baker

APPENDIX # 7:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

1. Standing Committee President

The Standing Committee has submitted the following proposed amendment to the Constitution of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

BE IT RESOLVED that the second sentence of Art. VIII of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended to read as follows:

> At their first meeting, they shall elect one of their members to be President, and another of their members to be Secretary.

N.B. Art. X of the Constitution requires that any amendment be approved at two successive conventions "by a majority of the two Orders voting thereon separately..."

The old second sentence of Art. VIII reads as follows:

> At their first meeting, they shall elect one of their Clerical members to be President, and another of their members to be Secretary.

The effect of this proposed amendment would be to remove the requirement that the President of the Diocesan Standing Committee be a member of the Clergy.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons finds no conflict between this proposed amendment and any of the other provisions of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania or the U. S. Episcopal Church.

Canon V, Section 5.1.3 does provide that the duty and right of acting as Ecclesiastical Authority shall devolve upon the Standing Committee in cases where provision is made for their action in place of the Bishop, in the event of the absence or disability of all diocesan bishops or of a vacancy in the Episcopate. However, if the Standing Committee has a duty, as Ecclesiastical Authority, which only a member of the Clergy may perform, the Standing Committee could designate one of it Clerical members to perform that duty. Nothing in the Constitution or Canons requires the President to act on behalf of the Standing Committee.

Canon XI (of Standing Committees) of the National Church simply provides, in Section 1, that in every diocese the Standing Committee shall elect from their own body a President and Secretary. The President is not required to be one of the Clerical members.

Article IV of the National Constitution provides for Standing Committees and does not require the President to be a member of the clergy. Canon IV, Section 4.1 of the Diocese of Pennsylvania provides for elections to the Standing Committee and would not require amendment in connection with the proposal.

2. Amendment to "Proposed By-Laws for an Incorporated Church"

Item #7 of the Report of the Committee on Incorporation recommends that the phrase "in the calendar year in which such election or meeting is being held and in the calendar year immediately preceding such calendar year" for the phrase "during each of the two successive years immediately preceding such election or meeting" at the end of Article 1, Sec. 1 of "Proposed By-Laws for an Incorporated Church".

This would clarify an ambiguity and the Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons finds no conflict between the proposed amendment and the Diocesan Constitution and Canons. Since this proposal was received by the Chairman on October 19, 1983, approval of the full Committee has been requested but not yet received.

3. Resolution Regarding "Council Persons at Large" (R-10)

The resolution of the ad hoc committee to study Diocesan Council structure and membership recommends the amendment of Canon 6.1.1.3 by the addition of the following language at the beginning of that Canon:

"The 201st Convention (held in 1984) may elect three persons, Clergy or Lay, as "Council Persons at Large". At that Convention, the person receiving the highest number of votes shall serve a three year term; the second highest, a two year term; and the third highest, a one year term. The 202nd Convention (1985) and the 203rd Convention (1986) will each elect one person for a three year term to fill the vacancy occurring in that year by expiration of one of the terms. Any Council Person at Large may complete that person's three year term, but Council Persons at Large will be elected after the 203rd Convention (1986) only by amendment of this Canon. If this Canon is not so amended, the foregoing provisions, except as they provide for completion of terms, shall terminate as of the conclusion of the 203rd Convention."

The above proposal is intended to effect the proposed Resolution (R-10) by amending Canon 6.1.1.3, rather than setting it aside. Since the Committee was asked on October 19, 1983, to comment upon this Resolution, the above proposal is made by the Chairman subject to the approval of the full Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

David C. Auten
Chairman

APPENDIX # 8:

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED AT THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF 1982, AND TO BE FINALLY ACTED UPON AT THE CONVENTION OF 1985

I. That the first two paragraphs of Article I, Section 4, of the Constitution shall be stricken and a new paragraph be substituted therefor, as follows:

The Church in each Diocese which has been admitted to union with the General Convention, and the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe, shall be entitled to representation in the House of Deputies by not more than four ordained persons, Presbyters or Deacons, canonically resident in the Diocese and not more than four Lay persons, communicants of this Church, in good standing, in the Diocese but not necessarily domiciled in the Diocese; but the General Convention by Canon may reduce the representation to not fewer than two Deputies in each order. Each Diocese, and the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe, shall prescribe the manner in which its Deputies shall be chosen.

II. That Article VIII of the Constitution be amended by striking from said Article VIII the words "or Missionary Diocese," so that said Article VIII will read:

No person shall be ordered Priest or Deacon to minister in this Church until he shall have been examined by the Bishop and two Priests and shall have exhibited such testimonials and other requisites as the Canons in that case provided may direct. No persons shall be ordained and consecrated Bishop, or ordered Priest or Deacon to minister in this Church, unless at the time, in the presence of the ordaining Bishop or Bishops, he shall subscribe and make the following declaration:

"I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; and do solemnly engage to conform to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Episcopal Church."

Provided, however, that any person consecrated a Bishop to minister in any Diocese of an autonomous Church or Province of a Church in communion with this Church may, instead of the foregoing declaration, make the promises of Conformity required by the Church in which he is to minister.

If any Bishop ordains a Priest or Deacon to minister elsewhere than in this Church, or confers ordination as Priest or Deacon upon a Christian minister who has not received Episcopal ordination, he shall do so only in accordance with such provisions as shall be set forth in the Canons of this Church.

No person ordained by a foreign Bishop, or by a Bishop not in communion with this Church, shall be permitted to officiate as a Minister of this Church until he shall have complied with the Canon or Canons in that case provided and also shall have subscribed the aforesaid declaration.

III. That Article X of the Constitution be amended by striking therefrom references to Missionary Dioceses and the Convocation of American Churches in Europe, and restating the provisions on voting, so that said Article X will read:

The Book of Common Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, together with the Psalter or Psalms of David, the Form and Manner of Making, Ordaining, and Consecrating Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, the Form of Consecration of a Church or Chapel, the Office of Institution of Ministers, and Articles of Religion, as now established or hereafter amended by the authority of this Church, shall be in use in all the Dioceses of this Church. No alteration thereof or addition thereto shall be made unless the same shall be first proposed in one regular meeting of the General Convention and by a resolve thereof be sent within six months to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese, to be made known to the Diocesan Convention at its next meeting, and be adopted by the General Convention at its next succeeding regular meeting by a majority of all Bishops, excluding retired Bishops not present, of the whole number of Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and by a vote by orders in the House of Deputies in accordance with Article I, Sec. 5, except that concurrence by the orders shall require the affirmative vote in each order by a majority of the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies.

But notwithstanding anything hereinabove contained, the General Convention may at any one meeting, by a majority of the whole number of the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and by a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies voting by orders as previously set forth in this Article:

(a). Amend the Table of Lessons and all Tables and Rubrics relating to the Psalms;
(b). Authorize for trial use throughout this Church, as an alternative at any time or times to the established Book of Common Prayer or to any section or Office thereof , a proposed revision of the whole Book or of any portion thereof, duly undertaken by the General Convention.

And Provided, that nothing in this Article shall be construed as restricting the authority of the Bishops of this Church to take such order as may be permitted by the Rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer or by the Canons of the General Convention for the use of special forms of worship.

IV. That Article II, Section 4 of the Constitution be amended as follows:

1. Add the words "for election" to the last sentence of Section 4 of Article II, so said sentence will read:

He shall be eligible for election as Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor of a Diocese or as a Suffragan in another Diocese.

That Article II, Section 7 of the Constitution be amended as follows:

2. Add the words "for election" to the last sentence of Section 7 of Article II, so said sentence will read:

He shall be eligible for election as Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor or Suffragan Bishop of a Diocese.

V. That Article II, Section 8 of the Constitution be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 8. A Bishop exercising jurisdiction as the Ordinary, or as the Bishop Coadjutor, of a Diocese, may be elected as Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop, of another Diocese; Provided, that he shall have served not less than five years in his present jurisdiction; and Provided always, that before acceptance of such election he shall tender to the House of Bishops his resignation of his jurisdiction in the Diocese in which he is then serving, conditioned on the required consents of the Bishops and Standing Committees of the Church to his election, and also, if he be a Bishop Coadjutor, his right of succession therein, and such resignation, and renunciation of the right of succession in the case of a Bishop Coadjutor, shall be consented to by the House of Bishops.

VI. That Article I of the Constitution be amended by deleting the fourth paragraph of Section 4, adding a new Section 5 reading as follows:

Sec. 5. The vote on all questions which come before the House of Deputies shall be governed by the following provisions, supplemented by such procedural provisions as the House of Deputies may adopt in its Rules of Orders:

Unless a greater vote on any question is required by this Constitution or by the Canons in cases not specifically dealt with by this Constitution or unless a vote by orders on a question is required, the affirmative vote of a majority of all of the Deputies present and voting shall suffice to carry any question.

A vote by orders on any question shall be taken if required for that question by this Constitution or by the Canons or if the Clerical or Lay representation from three or more separate Dioceses shall so request at the time of the call for the vote on that question. In all cases of a vote by orders, the vote of each order, Clerical and Lay, shall be counted separately, each order in each diocese shall have one vote, and a vote in the affirmative by an order in a Diocese shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the Deputies present in that order in that Diocese.

To carry in the affirmative any question being voted on by orders requires concurrence in the affirmative by both orders and, unless a greater vote is required by this Constitution or by the Canons in cases not specifically dealt with by this Constitution, concurrence in the affirmative by an order requires the affirmative vote in that order by a majority of the Dioceses present in that order.

and renumbering Sec. 5 and 6 as Sec. 6 and 7.

VII. That Sec. 2 of Article VI of the Constitution be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. The General Convention may accept a cession of the territorial jurisdiction of a part of a Diocese when such cession shall have been proposed by the Bishop and the Convention of such Diocese, and consent thereto shall have been given by three-fourths of the Parishes in the ceded territory, and also by the same ratio of the Parishes within the remaining territory.

Any territorial jurisdiction or any part of the same, which may have been ceded by a Diocese under the foregoing provision, may be retroceded to the said Diocese by such joint action of all the several parties as is herein required for its cession, save that in the case of retrocession of territory the consent of Parishes within the territory retroceded shall not be necessary; Provided that such action of the General Convention, whether of cession or retrocession, shall be by a vote of two-thirds of all the Bishops present and voting and by a vote by orders in the House of Deputies in accordance with Article I, Section 5, except that concurrence in the affirmative by an order requires the affirmative vote in that order by two-thirds of the Dioceses present in that order.

VIII. That the first paragraph of Article XII of the Constitution be amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE XII

No alteration or amendment of this Constitution shall be made unless the same shall be first proposed at one regular meeting of the General Convention and by a Resolve thereof be sent to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese to be made known to the Diocesan Convention at its next meeting, and be adopted by the General Convention at its next succeeding regular meeting by a majority of all Bishops, excluding retired Bishops not present, of the whole number of Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and by an affirmative vote by orders in the House of Deputies in accordance with Article I, Section 5, except that concurrence by the orders shall require the affirmative vote in each order by a majority of the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies.

APPENDIX # 9:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

At the first stated meeting after the 199th Annual Convention of the Diocese, the Standing Committee received a Certificate of Election from the Secretary of Convention confirming the re-election of the Rev. Robert H. Peoples and Duffield Ashmead, III for five-year terms on the Committee. Also at that meeting, which took place on October 26, 1982, the Rev. James A. Trimble was re-elected President of the Committee and Duffield Ashmead, III was re-elected as its Secretary.

During the period of this Report the Committee approved the election of three Diocesan Bishops, two Bishops Coadjutor and one Suffragan and it approved the calling of elections for two Bishops Coadjutor. Also during the same period the Standing Committee approved applications for postulancy, candidacy and ordination to both the Diaconite and Priesthood.

As in the past, the Committee dealt with a substantial number of trust and estate matters including, most prominently, the disposition of the Sayers Fund. In addition, there have been the usual number of applications for the sale of real estate. Most of these items have been completed. At the risk of being redundant, the Committee would again like to bring to the attention of all parishes that contemplate the sale of any real estate that it is most important to first ascertain in what entity the real estate is titled, i.e., whether in the Church foundation or the parish itself. It is also most important in those cases in which title is in the parish to make sure that there are no restrictions or conditions with respect to a proposed sale. For these reasons it is most desirable that legal advice be sought before any commitments to a prospective purchaser are made.

Also in connection with real estate matters the Committee reviewed its policy with respect to sales of real estate with particular reference to the requirement that a tithe of any proceeds from such sales be made available to the Diocese for use outside the parish, absent extraordinary circumstances. The Diocesan policy in this regard has been that such a tithe should be contributed on a voluntary basis in connection with all gifts and proceeds from the sale of property and in this regard attention is directed to the Bishop's memorandum dated September 10, 1976. In line with this policy the Committee will continue to require a tithe in these cases where its consent is necessary to a proposed sale, absent the extraordinary circumstances noted above.

The Committee has continued to follow the problems associated with the proposed relocation of Diocesan Headquarters at Rittenhouse Square, and in view of its importance something more than a passing reference seems indicated in this Report. It is expected that the President will address the matter in more detail at the Convention.

It will be recalled that in the late 1960's, the Diocese sold the Old Church House at 210 West Rittenhouse Square to a developer who intended to build a high rise building on the site. Besides paying the Diocese $500,000, the developer agreed, among other things, to subsidize the Diocesan rent in the IVB Building until the new Rittenhouse Square building was finished, and then to lease the third floor of the new building to the Diocese at an extraordinarily attractive base rental of $3.00 per square foot for 35 yrs. Indeed the Standing Committee believes that the value of all of these additional rights exceeds $1 million.

Suffice it to say that the Rittenhouse Square building has met innumerable problems. At one point, the Standing Committee was compelled to authorize suit against the developer to obtain judicial recognition of the plain meaning of the rights the Diocese obtained in the new building. This resulted in a decree in the Diocese's favor in 1982.

In the past year, the Bank of America, the lender with the greatest stake in the building, began foreclosure proceedings in federal court against the developer. The developer, in turn, asserted claims against the Bank of America, and this litigation remains pending.

In the past year, the Standing Committee has quite literally addressed this problem at every one of its meetings. Most recently, on October 11, the Standing Committee held a special meeting to consider appropriate action in view of the imminent termination of the Diocesan lease in the IVB Building.

Since it would be irresponsible stewardship for the Standing Committee to authorize any action which would impair or retreat from the extraordinarily valuable rights the Diocese has to the Rittenhouse Square project, a permanent relocation was out of the question. A variety of other options were considered on October 11, including temporary rental of space in churches, the old Philadelphia Divinity School campus, and certain Center City commercial space. After considering all of these options (in consultation with a special committee of experts to consider alternatives for housing), the Standing Committee unanimously decided to accept a two-year extension on the IVB lease, on terms which seemed to the Standing Committee to be favorable, including a six-month option to vacate the IVB Building without penalty.

The Committee approved nominations to the governing bodies of various organizations related to the Diocese, including among others, Episcopal Community Services and Cathedral Village.

The project to collect and preserve the archives of the Diocese continued during the year under the direction of Mr. Glenn Colliver the Archivist. He advised the Committee that the archives consist of approximately 200 boxes of material, and that about 60% of the work had been done as of the Spring. He has estimated that the task should be completed by November and in the meantime, interim reports have been sent to the National Endowment for Humanities, which organization is providing the funding for the project.

Early in the year the Bishop appointed a Committee to supervise plans for a Diocesan bicentennial celebration. This Committee has been reporting periodically to the Standing Committee and is under the able leadership of Mr. William White. A sub-committee of that Committee has been formed to identify sources of funding for this project.

The Committee considered the budget for the Episcopal function for the Diocese for 1983.

The Bishop attended all of the stated meetings of the Committee and has consulted with it on the usual variety of matters including, particularly, proposed Canon 22 applications, disciplinary matters, the composition of the Episcopate and public relations.

For a short (blessedly) period of time this Fall during the Bishop's incapacity due to a severe fall the Standing Committee acted as the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, as provided by the Canons.

The Committee again had very competent help in its deliberations from any number of people, but special mention should be made of Peter Wilmerding as Controller of the Diocese and Geoffrey Stengel in his capacity as Executive Vice President of the Church foundation. Another very valuable source to the Standing Committee has been the committee dealing with problems at Rittenhouse Square, which includes Mr. John Harrison, Mr. John Williams, Mr. Philip Howse and Messrs. Wilmerding and Stengel.

Committee meetings are usually held in the offices of the Diocese on the fourth Tuesday of every month except July and August. If anyone wishes to appear on a particular matter it is requested that advance notice be given so that the business of the Committee can be facilitated.

Respectfully submitted,
Duffield Ashmead, III
Secretary

Ladies & Gentlemen:

I would refer you to the report of the Secretary of the Standing Committee which details the work of the Committee since the last Diocesan Convention.

I would however, ask your indulgence so that I may make specific reference to a problem that seems to be ever with us. I am referring to the location and housing of the Bishop and his Staff. If you turn to the Committee's Report you will have some reference point in evaluating what I am going to say -

There has not been one meeting of the Standing Committee this year which has not been concerned with a discussion of this issue. As you know, the Diocese has a lease-hold agreement with Hotel Rittenhouse Associates to occupy a designated amount of space in the finished building on Rittenhouse Square - the location of the former Church House. This lease-hold calls for the payment in base rent of $3.00 per square foot for thirty-five years. You also know that the building on Rittenhouse Square is to say the least - well behind schedule in terms of occupancy. The lease on our present space at the I.V.B. Building expires at the end of this year, and any renewal for next year has to be made before November 1, 1983.

At a special meeting of the Standing Committee on October 11, 1983, a Committee composed of John Harrison, Chairman, Finance & Property Committee, Philip Howse, Treasurer of the Diocese, John Wilson, Retired Real Estate Manager of the I.N.A., now Cigna Corporation, and Peter Wilmerding, Comptroller of the Diocese, presented a report after investigating the possibility of temporary housing for the Bishop and Church House Staff. They recommended to the Bishop and Standing Committee that we stay where we are for the time being. The rational for this recommendation runs as follows:

1. Our lease-hold in the Rittenhouse Towers is extremely valuable. In addition to the lease-hold itself, architectural and rent reimbursement are at stake - as well as substantial commitment on the part of Hotel Rittenhouse Associates for fit up expenses.
2. Counsel has advised us that it is in the best interest of the Diocese to continue to pursue the Diocese's rights against the Hotel Rittenhouse Associates and do nothing which might impair these rights.
3. No temporary quarters were found and even if they were the Committee feels moving and preparation costs would exceed any amoung saved on rent.

4. We, through the good offices of John Wilson, were able to negotiatate a favorable rent extension with the owners of the I.V.B. Building for a two year period with a generous six month escape clause.

Since Bank of America has already expended over Thirty Million Dollars on the structure, it is the considered opinion of experts in the field of banking and real estate that they will not walk away from their investment.

It was therefore, the unanimous decision of the full Standing Committee to accept the report of the Committee on Church House Housing and to stay in the I.V.B. Building for a period NOT TO EXCEED TWO YEARS.

The Standing Committee will continue to search for a solution to this problem.

APPENDIX #12:

RE-17: COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL AND INTERFAITH RELATIONS

Since the 1982 General Convention in September and Diocesan Convention in October, our Commission—with its new, elongated name recommended by the Bishop and his staff to make clear that our ecumenical responsibility includes interfaith as well as inter-Christian relationships—has continued to give most of its time and energy to encouraging and providing resources and motivation for ecumenical dialogue and service at the local community level.

Although it is most important that ecumenical dialogue—and an earnest working toward unity— take place in all levels of the Church's life, including the hierarchies and Church Councils at the world level where crucial decision-making power rests, it is at the local level where ecumenism becomes real to the people of God. Helping our Lord's prayer for unity to happen ". . .that all may be one, O Father, as You and I are one. . .that the world may believe. . . ." (John 17:21) in many local congregations has been a growing number of Parish Ecumenical Representatives (PER)—planning, studying, dreaming, and working with their clergy, vestries, and others.

As of mid-June, 1983, there were 74 PERs appointed to this special responsibility—about 43 percent of 170 congregations of the Diocese are represented. A series of our Spring Ecumenical "Cluster" workshops was scheduled, April 16 and May 14, for orientation, study of resources, and sharing of ecumenical ideas to assist the PERs. We are grateful to the following host parishes and commission members who acted as coordinating leaders of these workshops:

Cluster 1 (representing the deaneries of Schuylkill, Southwark, and Fairmount) meeting at The Church of the Saviour, West Philadelphia, with coordinators Ronald Garvin and Daniel Johnson, on April 16;

Cluster 2 (representing the deaneries of Bucks, Montgomery, and Pennypack) meeting at the Church of the Advent, Hatboro, with coordinators Kathryn Darby and Daniel Wood, on April 16;

Cluster 3 (representing the deaneries of Brandywine, Delaware, and Valley Forge) meeting at Holy Trinity, West Chester, with coordinators Autumn Fletcher and the Rev. Wilfred Penny, on May 14; and Cluster 4 (representing the deaneries of Conestoga, Merion, and Wissahickon) meeting at St. George's, Ardmore, with coordinators Virginia Bracken, the Rev. James Sox, and Helen White (St. George's PER), on May 14.

All PERs receive subscriptions to both the bi-monthly Ecumenical Bulletin and monthly Ecumenical Trends publications as their basic resources and also have in their ecumenical libraries the Forward Movement booklets, "Lutheran-Episcopal Dialogue, Series II" and "The Final Report: A.R.C.I.C." (Anglican-Roman Catholic Dialogue). The last two resources were distributed as "required reading" to the PERs to prepare for last October 30's Diocesan Ecumenical Workshop "Christians in Dialogue: Growth and Hope for Unity" sponsored by our commission.

In addition to our invitations throughout the Diocese, Bishop William A. Jansen, Jr., Bishop of the Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church in America (LCA), invited his clergy and a lay person from each congregation. Well over 100 persons attended the workshop, which featured keynote speakers the Rev. Dr. Timothy Lull of the Mt. Airy Lutheran Seminary and the Rev. Dr. Charles Diamond, assistant director for ecumenism for the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Morning and afternoon workshops on the texts were held, with the help of reading guides prepared by our commission members, and the day was climaxed by the 12 noon Holy Eucharist with Bishop Ogilby and Bishop Jansen as co-celebrants. Bishop Jansen was also the preacher. Fr. Diamond led the Renewal of Baptismal Vows and there was a variety of other ecumenical participation by both laity and clergy.

Since its inaugural Joint Episcopal-Lutheran celebration in our area, a growing number of similar services have been planned and held, many with the accompanying mutual study and discussion of one another's traditions and beliefs suggested both in the General Convention's Resolutions and in Bishop Ogilby's "Guidelines for Joint Celebrations" mailed to parish clergy on January 28, 1983. Our commission's sub-committee on Lutheran-Episcopal dialogue stands ready to assist parishes in planning such events—which are most appropriate this fall as the Lutherans celebrate the 500th anniversary of Martin Luther's birth. You may contact the sub-committee's convenor, Ms. Autumn Fletcher, a senior at the Lutheran Seminary studying for Episcopal Holy Orders, at 734-1392.

Although important final decisions and plans are made at the frequent plenary sessions of the commission, a plan of sub-committee divisions was approved last spring. These include the following:

Interfaith Dialogue: the Rev. John Hardwick, Victoria Clark, Kay Darby, and Dan Wood;

Education & Publicity: includes editing the new Ecumenical Newsletter of the Diocese by Dan Johnson, 985-4528; (All PERs receive the newsletter. Do call Dan with your ecumenical news.);

Lutheran-Episcopal Dialogue: Autumn Fletcher, Virginia Bracken, Ronald Garvin, and Daniel Wood;

Roman Catholic-Episcopal Dialogue: Wilfred Penny, Virginia Bracken, James Sox, and Dick Swartout;

Social Issues: (e.g. peace, hunger, refugees, etc.) Bob Greer, Andrew Anderson, and Pat Kendall;

Faith and Order: Vince Eareckson

The commission is currently involved in a more detailed study of "The Final Report: A.R.C.I.C." for evaluation by the Church with a study following on the Faith and Order pamphlet of the World Council of Churches, "Baptism, Eucharist, and Ministry," due later in 1984.

Although the Diocese has not planned to send a representative to the 6th Assembly of the World Council of Churches in Vancouver, Canada, July 24-August 10, significant reports will be shared when received. An Interfaith Workshop in early October is our next major project.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS
The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby

200th Annual Convention, October 21-22, 1983

".....not to be served but to serve....."

Lessons: Psalm 146 — I Peter 4:7-11
Zechariah 8:3-12, 16-17 — Luke 22:25-27

The love of the Father enfold me,
The wisdom of the Son enlighten me;
The fire of the Holy Spirit inflame me. Amen

This Convention message will be unlike former addresses I have made on these occasions, for reasons which will be apparent as I tell my Christ story tonight. I have one significant anchor to windward which steadies me as I proceed. Should anyone want to report me to the Presiding Bishop for dereliction of duty or canonical misbehaviour, save your breath or your 20¢ stamp, because he is here; and we are delighted to have him with us.

I. BISHOPING

This year I am completing 10 years of service as the diocesan bishop of Pennsylvania and 30 years as a bishop. I trust this chronological exposure to the corporate and institutional life of the Episcopal Church entitles me to some latitude of expression -- to say what I want about our common life together in the Church of God, knowing, of course, that I am also talking to and about myself.

First, I think it only fair to tell or remind you of the religious rootings with which I came to Pennsylvania 12 years ago. My heroes were people like St. Paul, Henry Venn, Roland Allen, Charles Henry Brent, R.O. Hall, Norman Spencer Binsted, Isabelo de los Reyes. The Gospel of Christ I knew was described as worship and mission, prayer and action; and Church, the Body of Christ, was called to redeeming and restoring service, in the world. Themes that were important to me, and still are, included self-determination, empowerment, interdependence, autonomy, mutual responsibility, liturgical/biblical/ecumenical renewal. These are still my bias. To be sure, my years of Christian service with you have, indeed, broadened my understanding of and commitment to Christ and His mission, particularly in a vast complex American urban area, with its host of compelling concerns: housing, hunger, health; education, unemployment, crime; peace and poverty; racism, sexism, age-ism -- the list is long. And I am honored to stand alongside or behind so many of you who have courageously carried the redeeming love of Christ into many situations and places where injustice and prejudice, hate and violence, cruelty and sickness, prevail. God bless you.

And, of course, I am tremendously grateful for the pastoring and caring love I have received from this community of God's people, so clearly and magnificently demonstrated the weeks following my accident September 3rd, 9 a.m. on a rock that wouldn't move!

That accident again raised the question suddenly and forcefully: is one full-time bishop sufficient for the diocese of Pennsylvania?

As most of you know, I have in the past two convention addresses talked about the bishop, bishops, and bishoping here in the diocese of Pennsylvania. Since we are an episcopal church, bearing that name, though we may not always appear to behave that way, the topic is germane and appropriate, and often tender and sensitive. After 30 years of bishoping in three very different jurisdictions, I am perfectly comfortable with the subject. Let me say again how grateful we all are to Bishop Mosley, though officially retired, for continuing as our assisting bishop, particularly for his service on a regular visitation schedule to congregations and his extremely valuable pastoring and counseling ministry. We thank him.

In our American church, the diocese of Pennsylvania is considered a large and complex diocese, which statistically is growing in church membership -- 4% this past year -- though geographically relatively small. It would, indeed, be a joy to me personally to have another bishop -- coadjutor, suffragan, or assistant -- sharing this episcopate here and available for full-time service, especially a person with a skilled and experienced ministry in a vast metropolitan area encompassing a wide range of socio-economic, ethnic, and cultural variations. I know all too well that one bishop cannot adequately fulfill the expectations for the whole church in this diocese at this time. But there is another factor I have considered very seriously, stewardship. I must be a faithful and responsible steward as an administrator and a custodian of the corporate, institutional life of the diocese and as a collegial member of the House of Bishops. The simple multiplication of bishops is not appropriate.

It became disturbingly apparent to me late last spring that our current diocesan program and budget -- our various diocesan ministries -- and our projected diocesan ministries and administration for 1984 were not appropriately comprehended and appreciated and consequently very inadequately supported and funded. The figures right across the board indicated severe cuts to or complete elimination of many programs and ministries. I shall not speak in detail now, but I must register my extreme disappointment because I know how significant these ministries have been and why so many of them should be expanded and increased, not curtailed or concluded. When we view our whole diocese -- almost 90,000 people in some 180 congregations and several institutions and service agencies -- and all the resources available to us, we are not poor as the world tallies these figures. Yet, I cannot ignore the current economic reality of our diocesan budget and at this time ask for the election of another bishop, which would further significantly compound our financial concerns. To put it bluntly and succinctly: we do not have the money to pay for seeking another bishop, let alone meeting the payroll after one is called. We know pretty well what it costs to process a responsible election and to maintain another bishop in this diocese. As a steward of the episcopate here, I cannot ask for this until I am well assured of its financial feasibility.

There is another portion of my stewardship you should know about: I am intentionally endeavoring to be a tither, and I am dedicating a significant portion of my pledge directly to the diocese because I am an Episcopalian and trust all those responsible and caring people who make our diocesan program and budget process work and work so fairly. God bless them.

I do not want to dwell on these financial concerns, our program and budget, and stewardship any more tonight because these matters will be before us tomorrow.

truly believe that God will ultimately lead us to a resolution of these concerns. ".....they shall be my people, "prophesied Zechariah," and I will be their God, in faithfulness and in righteousness."

II. CHRIST'S MISSION OF SERVICE

At this moment, we are gathered in the 200th annual convention of this diocese -- a truly historic and unique occasion. There is much in our past, both in our colonial and post-colonial U.S. history that we can responsibly praise. Our legacy is rich. Just the names William White, Bishop, and Absalom Jones, priest, are enough to start our celebration. But we must be careful lest we center down on our cobblestones in our tri-cornered hats and gather our wagons around the quaint and lengthy liturgies of 1783. The look over our shoulders at the 200 years past is important for there are lessons to to be learned, but it must be a brief glance because there is an present world to encounter and serve for Christ's sake. For the sake of Christ.....There is our focus: God in Jesus Christ.

Jesus, our Lord and the source and author of all ministry, has clearly identified the heart of his teaching -- his mission of service. At the Last Supper, following St. Luke's account, the disciples began to argue concerning "which of them was to be regarded as the greatest." Jesus, dismayed and pained by this contention among his followers, said:

> "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors. But not so with you; rather let the greatest among you become as the youngest, and the leader as one who serves. For which is the greater, one who sits at table, or one who serves? Is it not the one who sits at table. But I am among you as one who serves." Luke 22: 25-27

The disciples were expressing what most of us, most of the time, want -- to better ourselves and our position in life. Isn't it human nature to aspire to rulership, power, glory, wealth, and prestige? In any group, someone must excel, be 'numero uno': why not me? my family? why not my part or segment of the church, or my parish?

Here Jesus, viewing himself as a slave, serving God and God's creation, challenges the common presuppositions of his world, of our world. Jesus, opposing the norms of the world, is the perfect personification of servanthood, caring completely for one's neighbors, so obediently it lead ultimately to his suffering, passion and death. And it is to this ministry He calls his disciples.

> "Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see thee hungry and feed thee, or thirsty and give thee drink? And when did we see thee a stranger and welcome thee, or naked and clothe thee? And when did we see thee sick or in prison and visit thee?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.' " Matthew 25: 37-40

To be a disciple of Jesus, to inherit the Kingdom of God and eternal life, is to serve those in need, providing food for the hungry to eat, drink for the thirsty, welcome for the stranger, clothing for the naked, and visiting the sick and those in prison.

To render wholistic service today so vital to human welfare requires knowledge, competence, and judgment, as well as wisdom, patience, and courage. Power and justice must always be considered in the rendering of loving, redemptive service. Politics, medicine, science, technology, economics -- all the skills and resources of our modern society in a nuclear age -- must be used and brought under the sway of the Kingdom of God, serving the needs of whole persons and peoples. This is service to people so needful of loving service; and service as prophetic challenge to the social, economic, and political order in the name of justice and peace.

III. MISSION - A GOAL AND A CHARGE

My previous missionary experience of 21 years in the Philippines and South Dakota and my theological understanding of the Church, the body of Christ, carrying on the servant ministry of Jesus -- these root the foundation from which I oversee and share Christ's ministry in this diocese. It is from this perspective and standard that I must assess my own episcopal ministry and the many other ministries in and throughout the diocese for which I have a mandated and shared responsibility.

Just as we know and experience the one God as Father creator, Son redeemer, Spirit sanctifier, we know and experience his body, the Church, in three essential and fundamental realities of God's presence in the world: worship, evangelism, and social service and action.

Worship. We gather, assemble, congregate to give God the praise for his love, particularly for the gift of his Son, our friend, healer, and redeemer; and we celebrate his continuing presence and power as we break his bread and share his cup.

Evangelism. We are dismissed and dispersed with his Spirit into his world with the story of God's love and care for all people and the joyous command to share this gospel of hope, help, and healing with others, bringing them into the community of his body.

Service and action. Just as God himself in the life, death, and resurrection of his Son, Jesus, entered and encountered the world -- the people and institutions of the world and all its sin, its injustice, poverty, violence, and destruction -- so we, members of his body, must incarnate his servanthood and bring redemption and restoration to the sickness and disorder in our society.

These three components, worship, evangelism, social action, expressing the reality of God's presence and mission in the world, are essential and mutually interrelated elements of Church, church at every level -- local congregation, deanery, diocese, province, nation, world.

With this as our affirmation, I am going to set forth a goal, a target, and a charge for our common Christian witness and church life in this diocese for the coming bicentennial year. I call upon every congregation and its members this 200th year to address these three components of church, taking definite and intentional steps towards this goal:

1. Worship - to enhance our worship, to learn more about the holy scriptures and sacraments, the creeds, and Christian history, doctrine, and spirituality, so that we may be better informed and more disciplined Christians. I charge every congregation to participate in at least one new and additional learning experience or event this year in this area.

2. Evangelism - to bring the good news of Jesus Christ to those in our communities who are not yet members of his body or who have forgotten or fallen away from Church participation, so that every congregation may grow in membership by 10% and also correspondingly grow in our comprehension of Christian stewardship.

3. Social action - to initiate or increase our involvement in social action, by direct personal participation and financial support, for Christian service in our local communities, in our diocese, and in the national church, strengthening these ministries which bring food to the hungry, health to the sick, and peace and justice to all. I charge every congregation to take on at least one new or additional social service activity or program during the course of this year.

There are, indeed, many splendid resources in our diocese to assist each congregation and its members with this charge. I cite a few: committees, commissions, or groups on worship, spiritual growth, theology, Christian education, youth, evangelization, stewardship education, urban mission, nuclear disarmament, world relief, hunger, housing, ecumenics, and agencies like our own Episcopal Community Services and the Seamen's Church Institute.

If these three goals are accepted and congregations move in these directions, a year from now we will indeed be more faithful in our discipleship and more recognizable in and by the world as agents of God's truth and love, peace and justice.

I will pursue these matters further with you in the months ahead by letter and conferences, and set forth ways by which we all may be held accountable.

I conclude with the three theme words for our bicentennial celebration: rejoice, review, and renew.

Rejoice because we inherit a great 200 year legacy of Christian faith and witness, worship and service. Review this history gratefully and critically so that we now may more effectively carry forward our proclamation and demonstration of the Good News of God's Kingdom. Renew our commitment to Jesus Christ and his ministry of servanthood, making real his peace and justice for all peoples.

Let us stand for prayer:

O God, Creator of heaven and earth, by your grace you have for two centuries called us in this Diocese to a goodly fellowship of faith and witness. Accept us now as we rededicate ourselves to the ministry of your Son, fashioning our lives in accordance with your will and making known your peace and justice, your truth and love, to all among whom we live, work, and worship; through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Bishop Ogilby, Deputies to Convention and Guests

1983 has been an interesting year financially for the Diocese. You are aware that the 1983 Budget included a built in deficit of $27,000. This past Spring it appeared that the deficit could run as high as $150,000. Since most of you attended one of the Deanery meetings held to discuss the financial situation of the Diocese in 1983 and 1984, I will not repeat the details of the problems discussed at those meetings. Suffice it to say, it appears at this time that 1983 will close with a deficit somewhere around the original $27,000. I think it should be said that this happy state of affairs has not been arrived at through any effort on the part of the living but rather the receipt of accumulated income from the estate of Edward C. Sayers, which income became available in 1983. Mr. Sayers was a member of St. John's, Huntingdon Valley.

Now I would like to speak briefly to the 1984 Budget. Much has been said about this budget in the last few months and much more will be said about it here this morning. I want to point out first of all that this is a balanced budget. The $350,000 shortfall that you have heard so much about is the difference between the financial support requested and the financial support proposed. Also, the 1984 Budget is up a very modest 3.2% from the 1983 Budget.

The modest increase in total income is due to mix. While we have projected a 7% increase in congregational giving, we have projected a 65% decrease in interest income. The dramatic decline in estimated interest income is due to a marked decline both in funds available for investment and in interest rates. Of course, all of the income assumptions were done in March. We hope that the efforts of the last two months will bring about an increase in congregational giving to the Diocese. However, barring significant unforeseen events, our income estimates have been extremely accurate. As of today, excluding the money from Mr. Sayers estate, we anticipate our 1983 income will be within 1.5% of the estimate made in March of 1982.

On the expenditure side of the Budget we find askings of $2,476,000 compared to projected income of $2,120,000 leaving a deficiency of over $350,000. No segment of the 1984 Budget has been funded at the asking level. Many programs have been cut severely, others eliminated entirely. Generally, the cuts followed guidelines suggested in responses to a questionnaire widely distributed throughout the Diocese last Spring.

In the event that the response to our budgetary problem is increased congregational giving to the Diocese, it will be the responsibility of the Diocesan Council working with the Budget and Finance and Property committees to determine how the cuts will be restored. In order for Diocesan Council to know whether or not programs can be saved, it is imperative that your 1984 Pledges be received before year-end 1983. I repeat, we need your 1984 Pledges by December 31, 1983. If pledges are not received until January or February or March, it will be too late. Programs will have ended and people will have been laid-off.

Included with your convention literature are the September 30, 1983 financial statements of the Diocese. I suggest that you review them at your leisure and direct questions, if any, to me or Peter Wilmerding, the Diocesan Controller.

Respectfully Submitted

APPENDIX #16:

RE-12: EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

The Women of the Diocese have had a year of challenges: on-going missions, new programs, and new responsibilities. The six departments have given active support to the work of the Church.

The United Thank Offering Department has organized two ingatherings, plus two workshops for parish custodians. Active participation in the selection of UTO grants at the Triennial in New Orleans gave added meaning to the work of this 94-year-old offering.

The Department of Missions distributed yearly income from designated legacies: domestic mission, Indian Hope, Black Schools and Colleges, and foreign mission. Funds totaling $6,300 were divided among the following: The Episcopal Church in Navajoland; St. Paul's College, Lawrenceville, Va.; School of the Mediator in Brazil; Holy Trinity, Haiti; Vellore Christian Medical College and Hospital, India; Episcopal Community Services; Voyage House; "Headstart" program at Christ Church and St. Ambrose; and the Philadelphia Committee for the Homeless.

The Prayer and Worship Department offered their fourth year of the Prayer Lecture Series which was given at several churches, as well as the Liturgical Dance Program. The department sponsored a special reception in honor of the women clergy of the Diocese at Cathedral Village. After Morning Prayer the clergy and laywomen clustered in small groups and discussed the great diversity of women's ministries, both lay and ordained.

The Department of Diocesan Ministries sponsored a tour of the Voyage House facilities, a youth-serving agency which provides guidance and support to troubled youngsters and their families. The Department of World Services continued distribution of cloth and yarn and collection of completed garments which are then donated to the needy through area agencies: Visiting Nurses Association of Montgomery County, Salvation Army Booth Maternity Center, Children's Aid Society, University of Pennsylvania Teen Clinic, C.R.O.P., and others. An additional $360 was contributed to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

The Department of Promotion placed articles in the Diocesan News and held a Communicator's Workshop which was led by Diocesan News editor Janette Pierce.

The Diocesan Food Crisis Fund, coordinated by ECW, has disbursed over $13,000 to area cupboards and kitchens. (This is covered in a separate report.)

The Lea Hill Scholarships face greater demands with higher tuitions and more applicants. This year six women were awarded grants amounting to $3,500. Applicants vary in their course of study; a postulant with a goal for ordination, specialization in occupational therapy, nursing and seminary work for involvement in extensive Christian ministry. Funding for these scholarships comes from annual contributions to ECW and in designations to the ECW's Book of Remembrance in the names of deceased dedicated churchwomen.

The Diocesan ECW joined over 140 other women's organizations at the second annual Festival for Women at the Bourse in February. Involvement with the Mayor's Commission on Women has continued, with renewed support for passage of the Equal Rights Amendment.

As a result of membership in the national Episcopal Women's History Project a history of early women leaders of the Diocese is being compiled. Chartered bus trips have proven popular with visits to the Episcopal Church Center, the United Nations, and Washington Cathedral and the Capitol Mall.

Varied workshops on leadership skills, the Board's own evaluation, and program planning have been held at Springfield Retirement Residence, St. Margaret's House, and Cathedral Village. A review of By-Laws is underway, and a list of Standing Rules has been compiled. The women continue their representation as deanery delegates, on Diocesan Council, and other Diocesan committees.

The schedule for the coming year promises to be a full one under new leadership. The women have accepted the challenge of Triennial "to accept the challenge of the theme to 'Go Forth Into the World' pledging to carry out our Lord's Divine commission in the ensuing triennium."

APPENDIX #16: Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of Pennsylvania

REPORT - October 20, 1983

We welcome this opportunity to share with you, directions taken, efforts made, and programs achieved, as we follow our chartered course to this point in the calendar year.

Episcopal Churchwomen use their skills to be in tune and sensitive to the spiritual,economic, social and political problems.

Reassessing both our accomplishments, and goals yet to be realized, as we make our ministry throughout the church, not only challenging, but meaningful, striving to successfully implement our oldest programs and initiate new ones designed to meet specific needs of the '80's.

Reflect with me on the activities of the Episcopal Churchwomen:

- The Department of Prayer and Worship extended its Prayer & Lecture Series providing spiritual enrichment, a reception for women clergy was planned and a Quiet Morning for the Board at St. Margaret's House. This offered an opportunity to reaffirm the commitment to enhance our spiritual growth.

- Women are in need of opportunities for continuing education. The Lea Hill Scholarship fund, operating on a small budget, depending on donations from parishes, awarded $3500 in grants to 6 women for study in the Seminary, school of nursing, and the department of occupational therapy.

- Thinking of the Department of Missions, this line from the UTO prayer comes to mind, "love and generosity have enabled us to respond to some of the world's needs in places far and near". This was made possible through the distribution of $6300 to Voyage House, Headstart for Hispanic children, Episcopal Community Services, Philadelphia Com. for Homeless, Indian Hope, Black Schools & Colleges - Brazil and Haiti and India.

- If the Department of Promotion had a slogan it would be, "communicate and share".

- Planning by the Department of Diocesan Ministries, gave us the opportunity to visit Voyage House and the Wholistic Health Center, which last year received a UTO grant of $30,000.

- The Department of World Service, embarked on a vital new program in structure developing a network of dedicated women in each Deanery, enabling the women to become more actively involved in Parishes & Deanery participation. More than 500 childrens garments were made & distributed during the year to Community and Social Agencies.

- Responding to hunger has kept our Food Crisis Committee busy. Last winter $13,185.25 was given to 23 food cupboards and 2 kitchens . During the summer $5000 from the Diocese met some of the needs of cupboards not in the metropolitan area. A federal grant received through MCCP of $14,443 was given to 9 metropolitan cupboards and 2 kitchens, providing 26,462 meals.

- What an unique privilege to support the UTO. The Spring Ingathering at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, netted gifts of $41,721.25. The Rev. Canon Lloyd S. Casson, Canon of the Washington Cathedral delivered the message. The committee of the Homeless (Phila) received UTO grants of $30,000. The Fall Ingathering is Sunday, November 20, Christ Church, 2nd above Market St, 2 P.M. The Rev. William E. Arnold, III will preach the sermon.

- Women representing Daughters of the King, Elizabeth Price Martin League, Church Periodical Club, Girls' Friendly, continue to share their ministries throughout the Diocese.

- We have membership on Diocesan and community committees and commissions. We will be actively involved in the Bicentennial celebration of our Diocese. An exhibit of the history of women, needlework and a dramatic presentation at the Ingathering in May are being planned at this time.

- Our bus trips continue to be enjoyable. 46 women on November 1st will tour the Episcopal Church Center, celebrate Eucharist in their Chapel and visit the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

We pledge our best and earnestly solicit your prayerful support as we follow the theme of the 37th Triennial - "Go Forth Into the World". With God's help we will strengthen our compassion for the hungry, perplexed, and helpless people, in whom

Faith struggles with Unbelief
Hope struggles with Dispair
Love struggles with Indifference.

Karey B. Smith, President

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Mrs. Nancy S. Ritter May, 1983

The Women of the Diocese have had a year of challenges, on-going missions, exciting new programs, and many rewards.

The Triennial experience (my first!) in New Orleans was the highlight of the year. These ten days were filled with worship, meetings, workshops, seminars, fun, and the exhilaration of seeing the Church "in action." We four delegates returned to Pennsylvania pledged"to accept the challenge of the theme to GO FORTH INTO THE WORLD pledging to carry out our Lord's divine commission in the ensuing triennium." We have begun this mission with visits and slide programs in many parishes and deaneries.

The following pages detail the Department programs of Mission, Prayer and Worship, World Services, United Thank Offering, Diocesan Ministries, and Promotion. The Diocesan Food Crisis Fund, coordinated by ECW, has revised its procedures with the increased needs and the higher funding--an all-time high for the year at over $13,000 The Lea Hill Scholarships face greater demands with higher tuitions and more applicants.

Three new programs were initiated. A special reception in honor of Women Clergy was held at Cathedral Village which left the attendants crying, "Encore!" We have joined the National Episcopal Women's History project and have begun a compilation of history of early women leaders of the Diocese. With three pages already in monologue form, there is talk of publishing! On the lighter side, the chartered bus trips have proven very popular with visits to the Episcopal Church Center, the United Nations, Washington Cathedral, and the Capitol Mall.

We have continued our involvement with the Mayor's Commission on Women and again exhibited at the Bourse in the Second Annual Festival for Women. We were pleased to name Christine Washington as a nominee for the Mayor's Award for her leadership with rehabilitated housing through the Advocate Community Development Association (ACDC). We join other women's groups in supporting renewed efforts for passage of the Equal Rights Amendment.

Varied workshops have been held: leadership skills, communication, the Board's own evaluation, and program planning, held at Springfield Retirement Residence, St. Luke & Epiphany, St. Margaret's House, and Cathedral Village. A review of By-Laws is underway,and a list of Standing Rules has been compiled. Our women continue their representation as Deanery delegates, on Diocesan Council and other Diocesan committees.

The schedule for the coming year promises to be full one under new leadership. Serving as Diocesan President these past three years has been a marvelous experience. I have thoroughly enjoyed every event, every visit to the varied churches, and meeting many wonderful people. My thanks to the Board who has been very supportive, and to the Bishop and his Staff for making Church House home-away-from-home. May we all go forth, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit!

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy S. Ritter

FOOD CRISIS FUND REPORT

May, 1983

The scope of this committee continues to widen with the increasing needs for food cupboards and soup kitchens. Many parishes and individuals are responding to the call for help with regular donations and with special ingatherings and designations. Thanks to this response, donations this past year increased from last year's $6,800 to $13,185.25.

The committee has expanded, and six meetings have been held since June with the following developments: a) an annual questionnaire to cupboards is sent out every spring. The replies establish criteria for donations. b) Disbursements are made at least quarterly. c) Networks are being made with MCCP, KYW Action Line, various county Opportunity Council listings. A feature article was placed in the February Diocesan News, and a report made to the March meeting of Diocesan Council.

The following food centers have received funds this year:

Church of the Advocate - food cupboard
Church of the Advocate - soup kitchen
Bucks County Community Center, Bristol
Calvary Episcopal Church, Rockdale
Christ Church and St. Ambrose, Philadelphia
Colonial Neighborhood Council, Conshohocken
Co-ordinating Council for Health and Welfare, Warminster
Church of the Crucifixion, Philadelphia
Fish Interfaith, Norristown
Interfaith of Eastern Montgomery County, Abington
LaCommunidad Hispana, Kennett Square
Lighthouse Community Center, Philadelphia
Open Line, East Greenville
Pottstown Interfaith Rafters Charities, Philadelphia
St. Thomas' Church, Philadelphia
House of Umoja, Philadelphia
St. Luke's, Philadelphia
Coatesville Area Emergency Food Cupboard
St. Augustine of Hippo, Norristown
Church of the Advent, Hatboro
St. Mark's, Philadelphia
St. Mary's, Bainbridge
Bucks County Opportunity Council
St. Elisabeth's Church, Mifflin

The committee hopes that the Diocese will continue to recognize and respond to the on-going need of our friends in Christ.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

May, 1983

Representing the ECW of the Diocese of Pennsylvania as a delegate to the Triennial Meeting in New Orleans in September 1982 was a big highlight of the past year. The inspiration of the meetings, workshops and services helped to set the mood for spreading the word in the parishes of the Diocese about the work of the UTO throughout the world.

The convention started with the UTO Ingathering Service with 7000 people attending and a colorful procession lasting 25 minutes. A record amount of $2,485,301.63 was collected for the past year, enabling the National Committee to fund 112 grants. Part of the work of the delegates to Triennial was studying the grant requests submitted last spring and voting on which ones to accept. The Diocese of Pennsylvania was fortunate in having two of its requests granted--the Wholistic Health Center in Germantown and the People's Bail Bond Fund.

Our annual contribution to the National United Thank Offering is received at two Diocesan Ingathering services. On Sunday afternoon, November 21, a service of Evening Prayer was held at Gloria Dei (Old Swede's) Church in Southwark Deanery, a beautiful historic setting. The preacher was the Rev. Maurice A. Coombs of Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd, Germantown, who spoke of the importance of the UTO grant in starting up the Wholistic Health Center, which is at St. Peter's Church. A tea followed in the parish hall, served by the women of Gloria Dei.

The Spring Ingathering attempted a new format this year by being held in the afternoon and followed by tea, rather than in the morning followed by lunch. It was felt that the lunches recently had been too expensive and the food not that good so a change was in order. The communion service included the presentation of parish offerings to Bishop Ogilby and an address by the Rev. Canon Lloyd S. Casson of Washington Cathedral.

The custodians participated in two workshops this year. In October a Leadership Training Day was held at the Springfield Retirement Center with reports and pictures of the Triennial Meeting, a workshop and a tour of the facility. In April, Program Planning Day took place at Cathedral Village. A skit entitled, "Twelve Chapeaux for UTO" was presented, featuring ECW board members in hats representing the 12 months and describing various pieces of UTO material. Since this was well received, it was planned to repeat it at the Annual Meeting.

The long range hope to have every parish involved in UTO with a custodian or chairman for each has made great progress. The biggest problem is keeping the mailing list current so that the right person receives the information on obtaining supplies and help in planning and carrying out their parish ingathering services. It is difficult for many to attend the daytime meetings and workshops, so it is doubly important that we know who to contact by mail. Many parish visits were made with programs on Triennial and the UTO.

This has been a great year for UTO in the Diocese and throughout the Church as we "Go Forth into the World" and give thanks to God for all His blessings.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

Sister Mary Michael, S.S.M. May, 1983

The Department of Missions distributes yearly income from legacies received by Diocesan Episcopal Churchwomen to designated groups, namely: Domestic, Indian Hope, Black Schools and Colleges, and Foreign.

For the year 1982 - 1983, the disbursements are:

|---|---|
| Domestic: | |
| "Headstart" program for Hispanic children at Christ Church and St. Ambrose. This money will fund one child for half a year. | $ 300.00 |
| Episcopal Community Services works with the poor and needy which it carries out on behalf of all the parishes of the Diocese. | $ 500.00 |
| Voyage House provides a variety of services in the Delaware Valley for runaway, homeless, and other at-risk youth. | $ 800.00 |
| Philadelphia Committee for the Homeless. Committee supportive of existing services to develop new appropriate ways of alleviating conditions of the growing numbers of "street people", population not reached by traditional welfare, and church-related services. | $ 100.00 |
| Indian Hope | |
| The Episcopal Church In Navajoland. Bishop Putnam writes, "our ministry here is one that goes from crisis to crisis because of the wide spread poverty of the Navajo people and our greatest social problem, alcoholism; we find that the good Lord does provide the means and the grace we need to cope with the many problems before us". | $1200.00 |
| Black Schools and Colleges | |
| St. Paul's College, Lawrenceville, Va., one of three historically Black Episcopal colleges in the U.S. is attempting to undergird new programs in computers, information systems, and science. | $1200.00 |
| Foreign | |
| Brazil - Rebuilding after a serious fire, the School of the Mediator has a pre-school for 90 children, as well as an active community center. | $ 500.00 |
| India - Vellore Christian Medical College & Hospital trains nurses who deliver health care to 300,000 in the surrounding rural area. | $ 500.00 |
| Haiti - Holy Trinity School, Haiti with 4000 students is having trouble paying teachers' wages. | $1200.00 |
| | $6300.00 |

Most of the above monies comes from legacies which stipulate breakdown. Remainder comes from parish donations. We had only six thousand to dispurse and would like five times as much to the world-wide needs.

I would like to thank my committee for their valuable suggestions.

Respectfully submitted,

Sister Mary Michael, S.S.M.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

Mrs. Franklin Wicks — May, 1983

The Prayer and Worship Committee sponsored a reception for the women clergy of our Diocese on November 11, 1982. The reception, which was attended by more than 60 women, was held at Cathedral Village. After a service of Morning Prayer, led by the Rev. Mary Adebonojo, and the Rev. Mary Glasspool, we were divided into small groups in which we discussed the great diversity of women's ministries in the Diocese, both lay and ordained women.

For the fourth year, the Committee offered a Prayer Lecture Series to churches in the Diocese. We visited each of the following churches with several sessions on prayer: St. George's, Ardmore; Church of the Redemption; Southampton and St. Faith's, Havertown.

The Liturgical Dance Program was offered December 5th, 1982, at All Saints Church, Norristown, and on January 11th, 1983, at All Hallows Church, Wyncote. Both participants and spectators agreed that this program is a blessing undescribably rich because it freed them to praise the Lord and to celebrate His goodness towards us, His children.

To conclude the year of work and prayer, the Board will spend a Quiet Morning in June.

It has been a year of study, celebration, and work. As a group, the Board reflected upon what the call to God's service means to us, individually and as a corporate body. In response to the question asked of Isaiah as he contemplated the call to ministry, may we answer as the prophet did.

"Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?
Here am I, Lord - send me!"
(Isaiah 6:8)

DEPARTMENT OF DIOCESAN MINISTRIES

Mrs. Mary Minter — May, 1983

The Department of Diocesan Ministries is concerned with promoting knowledge and support of agencies, programs and ministries of the Diocese.

This past year we had the opportunity to show our interest in the work being done at Voyage House, 311 S. Juniper Street, Phila. On March 22nd we toured the facilities of Voyage House and heard about the challenges the staff are coping with in helping young people in crisis. They are committed to a dedicated service providing shelter, protection and counseling to runaway, abused, and abandoned children. We also learned of their need for many things from clothing to paper clips. We were delighted that Mrs. Mosley was able to join us.

The Department of Diocesan Ministries will continue to give the women of the Diocese an awareness of the different ministries in our Diocese. Such information we hope will encourage your understanding, involvement and generous support of these ministries. They are:

Seamen's Church Institute
Episcopal Community Services
Voyage House
Food Cupboards
All Soul's Church for the Deaf

In the future we hope you will take advantage of programs put on by the Department of Diocesan Ministries.

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

Mrs. Lillian M. Milan — May, 1983

We are happy to tell you about our role in this wonderful mission of service. This accountability is an incentive to do the best we can to fulfill the expectations. First, let us review our expected role in the office of Promotion. We are to keep continuously the E.C.W. Parish Presidents and the other Keywomen informed of the planned programs and special events sponsored by the Diocesan Episcopal Church. Therefore, we stand willing to share, inform, communicate, publicize, cooperate, generate interest and goodwill for all of the activities. By so doing, there will be wide extensions of our Christian Ministry.

Our specific channels of Communications are the "Episcopalian", and the Diocesan Mailing. For the former we are especially grateful to Mrs. Jeanette Pierce, who is the competent and gracious News Editor of the Diocesan News. The ECW Parish Presidents and Keywomen should and are invited to share with us for publication the activities that are taking place within their Parishes. Many things that you do would be helpful to other parishes. Share this information for the joys of others by sending to the Promotion Department, ECW, Diocese of Pennsylvania, 1700 Market Street, Suite 2616, Philadelphia, Pa. 19103. Deadlines for articles should be sent to us by the end of the 3rd week of the month.

We are thankful for the President, Mrs. Nancy Ritter. We are thankful for your continued support.

We are especially happy of the future help from these ladies on Committee Participation: Mrs. Marianne Reeves, Mrs. Elizabeth Bedinger, and Mrs. Alice Barron.

Respectfully submitted,

Lillian M. Milan, Chairperson

DEPARTMENT OF WORLD SERVICES

is always busy with wool and with flax, she does her work with eager hands...she puts her back into her work and shows how strong her arms can be. She finds her labor well worth while; her lamp does not go out at night. She sets her hands to the distaff, her fingers grasp the spindle. She holds out her hand to the poor, she opens her arms to the needy. Snow may come, she has no fears for her household, with all her servants warmly clothed. She makes her own quilts, she is dressed in fine linen and purple...Charm is deceitful, and beauty empty; the woman who is wise is the one to praise. Give her a share in what her hands have worked for, and let her works tell her praises at the city gates.

These words from Proverbs 31 were read at the April "Emporium" at St. Anne's Church, Abington, where women from several parishes gathered to choose wool, cloth, trim, patterns, and instructions for the World Services Department program.

The faithful and talented women of the Diocese have continued their handwork projects for the needy: baby layettes, children's and adult garments as well as afghans, lap robes and slippers. Over 400 beautufully crafted items were contributed for distribution and the list of needs becomes longer. A new project this year was the Committee for the Homeless, which also has applied for a UTO grant. This new agency needs simple adult-size warm mittens, hats and scarves for distribution to the homeless.

Every contribution is placed with a helping agency. This year's recipients included The Visiting Nurses' Association of Montgomery County, the Salvation Army Booth Maternity Center, Children's Aid Society, University of Pennsylvania Teen Clinic, C.R.O.P., and local agencies.

Although many supplies are contributed, $300 was spent for cloth and yarn. An additional $360 was contributed to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief for immediate aid to those left destitute by war and disaster.

The World Services Vice President, Nancy Umfer, resigned in the fall of 1982. Filling her term will be Mrs. Dorothy Villante of All Saints', Torresdale. It is hoped that a core or volunteer coordinators from interested ECW's will provide a group for area distribution of supplies and receipt of finished garments.

Interim Vice President

LEA HILL SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

Mrs. J. Otis Smith

May, 1983

We are made more aware of our Christian Ministry through the promotion of the Lea Hill Scholarship Fund. Originally, the fund was created in recognition of the dedication and service of Mrs. John E. Hill, president of Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese from 1932 to 1938. The money received through entering her name in the Book of Remembrance, at the time of her death, was the beginning of contributions to the Scholarship Fund.

This program offered educational opportunities for women of the Diocese to obtain a degree or certificate in Christian and human services fields. Grants are made by a committee.

Due to the economic climate of today, more requests for scholarships are received than we can award. The funds to underwrite this program are from the annual contributions of the Episcopal Churchwomen and in the form of Memorial Gifts, (to the fund), made in the names of deceased women and recorded in the Book of Remembrance. We hope all parish E.C.W. budgets will include the Lea Hill Scholarship Fund, which will strengthen our dedication, to provide a greater educational opportunity for many.

We are grateful to the women of the Diocese for their support. This year six women were awarded grants amounting to $3500. Applicants vary in their course of study; a postulant with a goal for ordination to the Priesthood, specialization in occupational therapy, nursing and Seminary work for envolvement in extensive Christian Ministry.

Contributions may be sent to:

The Lea Hill Scholarship Fund
Episcopal Churchwomen
1700 Market Street, Suite 2616
Philadelphia, Pa. 19103

My thanks to the dedicated committee. May we increase our love and hope for others.

Blessings and Peace,

Karey B. Smith

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Mrs. William Clark, Sr. May, 1983

The Nomination Committee met January 18, 1983 and adapted the proposed slate. Prior to the meeting, forms requesting nominations from Rectors, E.C.W. Presidents and other Key Women in the parishes were sent in October, 1982. The forms were to be returned by December 15, 1982. There were few replies; however, all nominations were acknowledged. All nominees referred accepted.

The proposed slate, with a biographical resume for each candidate, was presented to the Board for its approval on January 12, 1983. A copy was sent to Bishop Ogilby for his approval after the Board adopted the proposed slate.

Bishop Ogilby approved the following slate as presented to serve a three-year term:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| President | Mrs. Karey B. Smith | Calvary, Northern Liberties, Schuylkill Deanery |
| Secretary | Mrs. Nokomis Wood | St.Martin-in-the Fields, Chestnut Hill Wissahickon Deanery |
| U.T.O. Custodian | Mrs. Betty Potts | Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg Pennypack Deanery |
| Assistant Treasurer | Mrs. Dorothy Graham | St. Thomas, West Phila. Schuylkill Deanery |
| Nominating Committee | Miss Lillian Booker | St. Simon the Cryenian Southwark Deanery |
| | Miss Ruth Fiesel | St. Asaph, Bala Cynwyd Merion Deanery |
| | Mrs. Janette States | All Saints, Torresdale Pennypack Deanery |

This slate will be submitted at the Annual Meeting for election.

DIOCESAN ECW CHARTERED BUS TRIPS

May, 1983

Three Diocesan chartered bus trips took place in the past thirteen months, all highly successful and an obvious popular new venture.

The first New York City bus trip was enjoyed by forty-two Episcopal Churchwomen. The first stop was at General Seminary where Dean Fenhagen welcomed us. After enjoying coffee and buns we viewed a film about the Seminary. The Dean answered questions and then invited us to join the seminarians for a Eucharistic Service in their chapel. As the bus wended its way uptown to the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine, brown bag lunches, furnished by ECW were enjoyed. Upon arriving at the Cathedral we toured the stone-cutting yard and met the Master Stone-cutter and his apprentices, men and women recruited from the area surrounding the Cathedral. We left the stone yard with an appreciation of the work that is involved in building that glorious Cathedral. As we entered the Cathedral, we were met by Canon West in his black robes and fur tippet, leaning on his staff and waiting to guide us with great eloquence and erudition. Canon West made us aware of the splendor of the Cathedral and fascinated us with its history. After a quick visit to the Book Store and Gift Shop we reluctantly boarded our bus for the return journey to Philadelphia - tired but happy from a very full day.

The second trip to New York City on November 8th was to Episcopal Church Center National Headquarters and the United Nations. Canon Geyer greeted us at our first stop. Here we were also treated to coffee and Danish pastry. After an informative talk with Canon Geyer we were taken on a walking tour of the many storied building which included a visit to the Presiding Bishop's office (minus the Bishop.) The visit ended with a Communion Service in the chapel. We ate our brown bag lunch in comfort in their conference room before leaving for the United Nations Building. The tour of the U.N. Building was made very interesting by our young guides. Walking through halls and sitting in assembly rooms where so many world problems and happenings are discussed and acted upon was a moving experience. Our homeward journey was full of chatter about the happenings of our day in New York.

The April 30, 1983 trip to the Washington Cathedral involved two chartered buses (leaving from different departure points), eighty-six people from twenty-six parishes. The two groups had guided tours of the Cathedral and its various chapels, and free time to explore the new gallery overlook,the Herb Cottage, and Bishop's Garden. The next stop was on the Capitol Mall in front of the Air and Space Museum where the passengers were free to investigate the many Smithsonian and art museums. Refreshments were served "on board" to the weary travelers on the homeward trip. The unanimous cry was, "Where do we go next week?".

CHURCHWOMEN UNITED

Mrs. Marcellus Reddick (J. Flossie) May, 1983

It was a pleasure to work with the Churchwomen United and be a part of a program where women portrayed love and harmony. Women of different races, colors and creeds working together in peace and harmony all with one accord, all with a common interest, which tells us that there is someone greater than we who dwells within our hearts that permeates love.

For 1983 we have a new president, Mrs. Doris Tafel. Doris came up through the ranks. She was a treasurer for a number of years. Mrs. Hattie Hamilton had served previously and had done a tremendous job so we assured Doris that she would do a better job because she had Hattie to support her.

Among the programs we have in Churchwomen United are: World Day of Prayer, Ecumenical action, (of which our own Mrs. Cecily Grannum is the chairman), UNICEF, May Fellowship and Ecumenical Development. Each committee seems to meet with success and I attribute it to the togetherness of the group.

We are now launching our programs in the "fifth decade" so we are asked by the national organization to raise a certain amount of funds. Our amount to be raised is $2500.00, so we are working towards that end.

Churchwomen had held the annual luncheon in January for the past 58 years until 1982 when the committee decided to hold the luncheon in April because of the inclement weather in January. The luncheon this year will be held on Thursday, April 21, 1983, in the Phila. Centre Hotel, 1725 John F. Kennedy Blvd. at 12 noon.

We have asked women of all denominations to join with us at the luncheon and also to join the organization as we launch our ship into the fifth decade. We are located at 1218 Chestnut Street.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA ASSEMBLY May, 1983

At present there are four active Chapters of the Order of the Daughters of the King in the Diocese of Pennsylvania and six members-at-large.

This has been an unusually active year beginning with our representation at the national Trienniel Convention in New Orleans - August 31 to September 4, 1982. Each morning began with the Eucharist followed by a meditation on our theme, "Open Our Eyes That We May See". Daily Business sessions, special programs, a Bus Tour, a Banquet when the Speaker was the Presiding Bishop, John M. Allin, filled our days.

Chapters and individuals participated in the Prayer Vigil which preceeded the Prayer in Practice Workshop held at St. Asaphs in October and a number of Daughters attended the Workshop.

A special luncheon was held in November when Elizabeth Daniel, our Missionary in Brazil, spoke and showed slides of her work. A number of Episcopal Churchwomen were present, including present and past Diocesan officers. We are most appreciative of their support. Elizabeth is most enthusiastic about the Bishop's Chapter of the Daughters of the King she and her Co-Worker, Pat Powers were instrumental in establishing in Rio.

The Self-Denial Fund, one of our national free-will offerings, pays the salaries and living expenses of Elizabeth and Pat.

Members of the Order are not permitted to raise money in the name of the Order,but do participate in projects of other groups, within their parishes.

Our Master's Fund, also a free-will offering supported nationally, is a Scholarship Fund to help women in the preparation for a career in some form of Church related ministry.

The Annual Diocesan Assembly will be held at St. Thomas, Whitemarsh, on Saturday, May 14th, beginning with a Service of Holy Communion at 11:00 A.M.

We look forward to participating in the Annual Provincial Meeting to be held in Baltimore in June.

Anyone desiring further information about the Daughters of the King, may call 438-1573.

Respectfully submitted,

Betty Jenks

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT: MAY 11, 1983

Since our last Annual Meeting in May, 1982, we have had a busy year. The The Memorial Day Weekend was a Work Weekend at Holiday House in Cape May, New Jersey. Many adults and young people from Trinity Curch, Oxford gave of their time, energy, and money in order to help prepare our Holiday House for the 1982 summer season.

The Traditional Sponsors' Weekend took place during the last weekend in June. The house was in fine shape, and was full. Everyone had a very enjoyable time greeting one another, and sharing the interesting bits and pieces of their activities during the winter and spring months.As always, the food was delicious, the entertainment was enjoyable and the decorations were lovely.

There were three youth weeks at Holiday House.Ninety-eight girls participated in the planned activities which included crafts, beach fun, and service to others. Several visits were made to the Crest Haven Nursing Home.

Adele Ray and I served as Working Associates during one of the Youth weeeks. I returned in August again as a Working Associate.

Our Fall season began with Leadership Training Day at Trinity Church, oxford in October.Leaders and Branch Advisors learned and practiced the interesting crafts to be taught to our Juniors.

Also in October we held our Diocesan G.F.S. Day of Prayer Around the World Service at St. Stephen's Church on Tenth Street, below Market Street. Father Hendricks and his gracious wife welcomed us making us feel really wanted and very comfortable, as well as inspiredby the setting. The service was a successful one. It was well attended, and most branches were represented. We also had a large number of sponsors present. A reception followed the service. We were able to greet many of those who took the time to come and share the service with us.

Our Regular Executive meetings and Diocesan Council meetings were held in October, January and May. Most Branches observed G.F.S. Week in January.

Senior/Sponsor Day was held at Gloria Dei, Old Swede's Church. Both Mr. Rivers, Rector og Gloria Dei, and our Chaplain, Raymond Baker shared the service. The Lessons were read by Adele Ray and Carmen Smith. The offering for missions was given to Susan and John Harvard, missionaries in Peru; All Saints School, Bontoc; and to the Church Periodical Club which will use the contribution for a children's project in Ireland.

It was my privilege to attend the Fiftieth Anniversary of The Girls' Friendly Branch at the Chuch of St. Simon, The Cyrenian.It was a Joyous celebration, and many former members returned - some from great distances - to join in the festivities. The day began with the Service of Morning Prayer in the church. The speaker was Mrs. Wilhelmina Mines, Principal of the Howe School located at 13th and Grange Streets in Philadelphia.Following the service, we enjoyed a delicious lunch, this was a very happy occasion, and it was for me, an honor to be present. I congratulate Marian Simmons, their Branch Advisor, and their many leaders who have shown a serious commitment to the members of their G.F.S.. Congratulations are also in order for Mr. Junius Simmons has helped in many ways to keep the Branch at St. Simon's growing toward greater achievements.

During the fall of 1982, I went with Isabel and Lucille Hamill to St. Barnabas Church Haddington to discuss the reactivation of the G.F.S. Branch there. Miss Rose Hall and Mrs. Edith Smeltzer seemed very enthusiastic about the reopening of the Branch. There has not been an Admission Service yet, but we are hoping the Branch will be started soon.

Mrs. Christine Joes, Branch Advisor for G.F.S. at The Church of The Good Shepherd, Rosemont, has been meeting with eight girls. The girls have been taking part in the Coffee Hours; singing a special Mass for some Sundays; they took part in the Spring Fair; and they will place flowers on the altar on Fathers' Day. Mrs. Joes is planning an Admission Service in September.

Mrs. Elaine Bell, Branch Advisor at St. George's Church, has been meeting with eight girls since the end of February. The girls made flowers for Mothers' Day. They will have a book sale. Mrs. Bell is planning an Admission Service in September.

I am pleased to say that we have two new groups who have become active. We look forward to their Admission Services, and we welcome them to our G.F.S. family.

Junior Day was held at Grace Church and Incarnation on April 23, 1983. It was a very impressive Junior Day. The attendance was excellent - the church was filled almost to overflowing. I was thrilled as I watched the procession of Branches as they walked down the aisle, proudly carrying their beautiful banners. All of the banners were beautiful. Some were newto us, and we could tell that they had been lovingly made to lift our hearts with joy as we proudly watched our children.

The Junior crafts were carefully and beautifully done. The leaders and girls all deserve much praise for attaing such wonderful resulta. The skits, dances, songs, and playlet were entertaining and interesting.We have had excellent Junior Days in the past for many years. This year's Junior Day can well take its place among the best.

On April 23rd, at the close of Junior Day, Julia Porter, Dot Heginbothom and I drove to the Flanders Hotel in Ocean City to join the National Sponsors at their Annual Reunion. The banquet was large and was made up of the ingredients of good good, good friends, and good fun. Sunday morning Canon Smith celebrated the Eucharist in the solarium if the hotel. After Sunday lunch, we left for home with happy memories of renewed friendships with many we had not seen a long time.

This is my last Annual Report. It has been my pleasure to serve as your president for two terms. Those six years have been for me, very interesting and rewarding years. I have always said that every member is important to the organization. I must add that every member has been important to me as your president.

Thank you for your support, your encouragement, your prayers, and for your friendship.

I look forward to the plans of our newly elected officers. I am sure they will serve us well, and will have the support of all of us.

May we all continue to receive the Lord's Blessings so that our G.F.S. will continue to grow strong in love and friendship.

Respectfully submitted,

Carmen T. Smith

APPENDIX #17:

RE-19: THE CHURCH FOUNDATION REPORT

The significant thing about the Consolidated Fund in 1982 was the turn-around from the results of 1981, partly because of the great stength of the security markets beginning in mid-August, 1982, and partly because of very substantial net new additions to the Fund.

Fortunately, this trend continued in 1983 with the result that the June 5, 1983, figures reflect new highs in almost every category. Specifically, the unit value was $27.79, annual earnings were $1.77 per unit, the return was 6.4 percent, and the value of the Fund was $25.7 million.

The Foundation's Investment Committee continues to believe that a broadly diversified fund invested in the approximate ratio of one-third bonds and two-thirds stocks offers the best opportunity, at least under present conditions, for capital appreciation coupled with an increasing amount of distributable income. In this connection, reference is made to the 25-year summary given in the 1982 Annual Report which reflects the long-term growth of the Fund.

During the past several years, the Foundation has received a number of major gifts to provide endowment income for the mission work of the Diocese viz. the bequests of the residuary estates of Robert L. Montgomery, Jr.: Maud L. Sayers; Wilhelmina C. Sayers: and Edward C. Sayers. The aggregate of these bequests is estimated at approximately $4.6 million and partial contributions have been made pending settlement of the estates in question. On behalf of the Diocese, the Foundation wishes to record its deep appreciation for the great generosity of Mr. Montgomery and the members of the Sayers family which will mean so much to the Diocesan program in the years to come.

As usual, a variety of real estate matters involving Church property required considerable time during the past year. A number of real estate settlements were completed satisfactorily, but there are several mortage problems stemming from real estate sales made in the mid-1960's and early 1970's. Continuing negotiations are in progress to avoid foreclosure. Hopefully, the solution will be found in the near future. Various leases were renewed during the year and several tax exemption matters were referred to outside counsel. As of the date this is being written, an agreement of sale has been signed for the Sayers residence in Meadowbrook, Pa., and settlement is expected in mid-August.

The Annual Meeting of The Church Foundation will be held on Oct. 26, 1983, for the election of five directors for terms expiring in 1986, and such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

JUBILEE MINISTRY

Agreed to hear in January a description of the Jubilee Ministry as adopted by General Convention and, further, consider designating the National Portion ($60,500) to that ministry through the National Venture Case.

TASK FORCE ON THE CHURCH AND THE HANDICAPPED

Accepted the report of the Task Force on the Church and the Handicapped and discharged the Task Force with thanks and recommended that the Bishop appoint 3-5 persons to initiate and design a Diocesan Program on the Church and the Handicapped using the report as a basis on which to begin. This number should include disabled persons and a member of Council.

COMMITTEE/COMMISSION ON SUBURBAN MINISTRY

Adopted a resolution appointing an Ad Hoc Committee to develop the orientation program and research the document from the Program and Budget Committee of the Merion Deanery, recommending that the committee begin its work by discovering the resources that exist.

COMMISSION ON CLERGY SALARIES AND PENSIONS

Elected three persons to the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions:
The Rev. Richard Gerard and Miss Rosalie Lloyd for three years
The Rev. Carol M. Chamberlain to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. Lawrence E. Seyler

January 15, 1983

RENEWAL/EVANGELIZATION/CHURCH GROWTH VENTURE RESOLUTION

Adopted a resolution discharging the Renewal/Evangelization/Church Growth Venture Committee from carrying out the third "Resolved" of R-18, 1980, and requesting Council to inform the 200th Convention of the Diocese, October 1983, of this action, and that the Renewal/Evangelization/Church Growth Venture Committee be responsible for reporting to the 200th Convention the body of knowledge (already available to the committee, and upon which it acts) that was called for by the 197th Convention in R-18 and for which the study group was formed.

NESTLE COMPANY

Adopted a resolution that the report of the Committee to Monitor the Nestle Co. be given to the Strategy Committee for a very, very thorough review with special emphasis on the following paragraphs:

The majority of Committee members (3 of 4) urge that Diocesan Council continue its support of the Boycott until Nestle's Marketing Instructions and their implementation are in compliance with the World Health Organization Code.

The remaining member of the Committee recommends suspension of the Boycott for the time-being until there is an opportunity to see how the revised Code is implemented.

SUSPENSION OF ONE STANDING ORDER AND ONE CANON

It was moved and adopted that Standing Order V.1,3,5 be suspended for the 200th Convention. It was moved and adopted that Canon 2.4.1 be suspended for the 200th Convention.

March 19, 1983

NESTLE BOYCOTT

Adopted a resolution maintaining its present position until June when new compliances by the Nestle Co. will be reported by the Committee to Monitor the Nestle Co.

ATTENDANCE AT DIOCESAN COUNCIL

Adopted a resolution appointing a committee to investigate an alternative method of providing members to Diocesan Council and to devise procedures by which Council itself can deal with the matter of continuing absenteeism. Council to send this report to Convention in October.

LONG RANGE PLAN

Adopted a resolution asking the Bishop to ask Ruth Fiesel, Chair of the original Long Range Planning Group, or someone she designates, to re-constitute a cluster of the Group to receive and evaluate this material and the Group to make recommendations to Council by May.

CONTACT PHILADELPHIA, INC.

Adopted a resolution accepting Contact Philadelphia, Inc. as an Affiliated Organization of the Diocese.

STATEMENT ON UNEMPLOYMENT

Received the Statement on Unemployment (ECS) and gave it to the Strategy Committee for implementation at the May meeting.

May 21, 1983

STATEMENT ON UNEMPLOYMENT

Council affirmed the Statement on Unemployment and authorized the Public Issues Committee (ECS) to forward it to the congregations.

PRIME MINISTER OF THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

Confirmed the letter written by Bishop Ogilby to the Hon. P.W. Botha and asked the Bishop to send a letter to the Prime Minister.

PROGRAM AND BUDGET

Adopted a resolution making $20,000 available to programs that were funded so successfully last summer, the remaining $5,000 to be allocated to the Diocesan Food Crisis Fund.

CANON 7

Adopted a resolution to develop the procedures necessary for administration, enforcement, and possible strengthening of Canons 7.2, 7.3, 7.4 and the details of the proposal to be made to Council in June.

UNIVERSAL NUCLEAR DISARMAMENT

Adopted a resolution, presented by Mr. Charles Day, referring Mr. Day's resolution concerning a referendum question on the November ballot (1983) in Philadelphia to the Strategy Committee to be dealt with at the June meeting.

June 16, 1983

DIOCESAN PROGRAM-BUDGET

Adopted a resolution asking that the Finance and Property Committee, or any other group that the Bishop may appoint, to review the procedures for funding the Diocesan Program Budget and report to Council by March 1984.

Adopted a resolution to send the Proposed 1984 Budget to Convention with the message on Page 2 attached as coming from the Bishop and Council. The Plan for Communication to the Congregations was adopted with the chairs of the four standing committees of Council as collaborators in the development of the plan.

JOBS WITH PEACE

Council adopted a resolution inviting Mr. George Lakey to make a thirty minute presentation in September and that Council debate the matter for thirty minutes after which a vote will be taken.

COMMITTEE ON DIOCESAN COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP

Council accepted the report of the Committee, given by the Very Rev. Edward Battin, with one amendment, i.e. under B., Convention shall elect each year one lay or one clergy as Council Persons at Large for a three year term. This was sent to the Strategy Committee.

STEWARDSHIP EDUCATION

Adopted a resolution asking the Bishop, at his discretion, to call a Special Meeting (or meetings) for the purpose of participation in the stewardship education program.

September 17, 1983

ELECTION OF COUNCIL MEMBERS AT LARGE

Adopted a resolution asking the 200th Convention to set aside at the 201st Convention Canon 6.1.1.3 so that the 201st Convention may elect three persons, lay or ordained, as "Council Persons at Large"; the person receiving the largest number of votes shall serve a three-year term, the second largest a two-year term, and the third a one-year term; subsequent Conventions subject to reporting back on the effect of this action by Council shall continue for a period of three years, at which time Council shall evaluate the experiment and make recommendations.

EDWARD C. SAYERS FUND

Endorsed the resolution from Finance and Property Committee, which will be sent to Convention, requesting the Bishop and Standing Committee to allocate to the mission portion of the Diocesan Program Budget for 1983 all available unexpended accumulated income for 1983 from the Edward C. Sayers Fund.

FUNDING FOR DIOCESAN PROGRAM BUDGET

Adopted a resolution asking that the:

200th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania directs the Diocesan Council, through its Committee on Finance and Property, or such other group as the Bishop may appoint, to (1) review the procedures and canonical provisions for funding the Diocesan Program Budget (including Canon 7.2, 7.3, and 7.4 relating to the assessments for the support of the Episcopate and Convention and Diocesan Expense); (2) report to the 201st Convention on the results of such a review, and; (3) prepare and submit to the 201st Convention for action any amendments to the Constitution or Canons of the Diocese that may be indicated as a result of such review in order to strengthen or otherwise improve procedures for funding the Diocesan Program Budget.

That this 200th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania substitutes the foregoing Resolution in place of the Resolution adopted by the 199th Convention which directed Diocesan Council to prepare amendments to Canons 7.2, 7.3, and 7.4 for submission to the 200th Convention.

REFERENDUM ON NOVEMBER 1983 BALLOT IN PHILADELPHIA

Adopted a resolution urging all voters to support the following referendum:
"Shall more Federal funds be made available for local jobs and programs, such as quality education, public transportation, energy-efficient housing, improved health care and conversion from military to peacetime production, by reducing the amount of our tax dollars spend on nuclear weapons and programs of foreign military intervention?"

SUPPORT OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA AND THE NATIONAL CHURCH

Adopted the following resolution:
"RESOLVED that the congregations of the Diocese commit themselves to meeting the 1984 Guideline for Outside Giving (a stated percentage of disposable income with the tithe as the minimum standard) or, if necessary, the Interim Guideline (which is a measured, percent step toward the Guideline), FURTHER RESOLVED that congregations commit themselves to supporting first and foremost, among all outside ministries, the mission strategy and programs of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and the Episcopal Church nationally as they are described in the Diocesan Program Budget, adopted annually at Convention."

Agreed that the third clause would be prepared as a result of the Deanery meetings and adopted the following resolution:
RESOLVED that the committee to write to third clause of Council's resolution to Convention consist of Janice Duncan and the chairs of the four standing committees of Council and be it further
RESOLVED that this third resolution be mailed to all council members for reaction and decision before it is incorporated with the first two clauses.

APPENDIX # 20:

DIOCESAN COMMITTEE ON HISPANIC MINISTRY
Report to Diocesan Convention
21 October, 1983

1983 has been a year of reorganization, stabilization, and planning for Apostolado Hispano - the Diocesan mission and ministry to the Spanish-speaking communities within the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Under the leadership of Fr. Elias Penaloza, the Diocesan Hispanic Missioner, the program continued in the direction established in the previous year at three mission sites, Christ Church and St. Ambrose in North Philadelphia, St. Paul's in Chester, and Holy Trinity in West Chester.

Fr. David Dod, a bilingual priest whom the Diocesan Committee on Hispanic Ministry had recruited to serve as Associate Hispanic Missioner, is serving as Vicar of Christ Church and St. Ambrose. In that capacity, Fr. Dod is responsible for the parish life of the predominantly Hispanic congregation, the overseeing and the continued development of the parish school, La Academia Cristiana De La Comunidad, and providing outreach ministry to the surrounding community. Enrollment in the parish school, under the direction of Ms. Mariana Manners, a parishioner of Christ Church and St. Ambrose and a staff member of the Diocesan Hispanic Minsitry Committee, has stabilized at thirty-five students. Financial support for La Academia De La Comunidad is derived from tuition and grants from concerned parishes in the Diocese.

Youth work at San Pablo's in Chester continues to be an important part of the ministry for that Spanish speaking congregation. During the summer one hundred and twenty young people attended the summer church school which was staffed by eleven lay workers paid for by the Bishop's Ad Hoc Committee on Human Need. Lunch was provided by the City of Chester. Certified Red Cross swimming lessons were offered. The worshiping congregation has experienced a steady growth to approximately forty-five persons although there is a continuing turn over in individuals attending due to seasonal commuting between Puerto Rico and Chester.

A lay missioner, seminarian Anna Waid, was added to the Apostolado Hispano staff to assist Fr. Penaloza with work in West Chester. Due to the predominantly rural nature of the Hispanic population in Chester County where employment for Hispanics is primarily found in the migrant camps in the mushroom industry, much of the outreach ministry is conducted in cooperation with church and community organizations and West Chester University. A bilingual committee was formed at Holy Trinity to provide support and advocacy for the work of Apostolado Hispano.

Perhaps the most exciting event of the year was the visit to the Diocese of Pennsylvania by the Rt. Rev. Francisco Reus-Froylan, Bishop of Puerto Rico. Bishop Reus, affectionately known as "Paco", made parochial visits to the three mission congregations, attended a special meeting of the Diocesan Hispanic Ministry Committee at Church House, celebrated a Home Eucharist in St. David's parish, and offered a house blessing in an apartment in West Chester where a Hispanic family had recently returned to their reconstructed home which had been damaged by fire in the spring. During the Bishop's visit to Christ and St. Ambrose, he conducted worship and participated in community activities. At St. Paul's, in Chester, Bishop Reus and Bishop Ogilby were guests of honor at a lively Fiesta. While at Holy Trinity in West Chester, Bishop Reus preached in English at the regular Sunday morning service. The Bishop's warmth, enthusiasm and Christian love, was felt and appreciated by all.

The financial support for Apostolado Hispano continued as planned with grants previously committed from United Thank Offering, St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill, and Venture in Mission being drawn upon. In addition, a second year grant from the National Commission on Hispanic Ministries and Program Budget support from the Diocese was received. A planned shift of funding from COAC to the Diocesan Hispanic Ministry Committee has completed the overall financial support for the program.

In planning new initiatives, the committee is looking forward to activities to support emerging Spanish speaking congregations in other communities within the Diocese, the establishment of a mission in Yabucoa, Puerto Rico to serve members of San Pablo in Chester, a housing rehabilitation program in the Hunting Park neighborhood of North Philadelphia in cooperation with a community based organization and a national foundation, and a Spanish language radio program serving rural Chester County.

As in the past, Hispanic Missioner Penaloza continues to represent Apostolado Hispano in conferences, consultations, and functions in the National Church. The Committee is grateful for Fr. Penaloza's strong and able leadership both within our Diocese and in the wider church. The Committee is grateful, as well, for the sensitive and steady guidance provided by Janice Duncan, the Diocesan staff person involved from the inception of the ministry in 1976. Janice's dedication, tireless efforts, and inspired leadership has been instrumental in bringing the Hispanic Ministry from a dream to an effective and growing mission in the Diocese. In September, Apostolodo Hispano welcomed Fr. Frank Turner, Assistant to the Bishop for Congregations, as the Diocesan staff person for the Committee and welcomed as well Fr. Butch Naters-Gamarra, newly appointed vicar of St. Barnabas' Church as the third Spanish speaking priest in the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. Stephen W. Price
Convener, 1983

APPENDIX #21:

RE-5: THE BISHOP'S OFFICE OF STEWARDSHIP EDUCATION

This was the first year for the Office of Stewardship Education reflecting the high priority that the Convention of 1981 gave stewardship in the Diocesan budget. Consequently, after the search and interview process to fill the position of the Office Director, the Rev. Ronald L. Reed, with the consent of the Stewardship Committee and the Bishop, opened the Office on March 1, 1982. With a budget of $25,000 the Office went into the business of promoting and assisting the clergy and congregations in stewardship education.

After the installation of Father Reed, the Stewardship Committee changed functions and became a committee of advice to the Director. This change formally brought the Director under the authority and supervision of the Bishop. With the Director, the purpose of the Committee of Advice is to develop and review stewardship education policies, procedures, and programs. The Committee did in fact develop (with the Director) a statement of policies and procedures, and assisted Father Reed in beginning the development of a new five-year stewardship education program. The Committee also added five new members, and planned for their training in stewardship principles for 1983.

During 1982, Father Reed made 51 field visits to 34 different clergy and congregations in consulting, teaching, and preaching about stewardship. Of those visits, five congregations explored and/or contracted for the Pennsylvania Plan of Stewardship Education, and 12 others utilized Father Reed in assisting in stewardship program development. The estimated number of people who were direct recipients of the services of the Office of Stewardship Education through Father Reed's ministry is 3,500. The total number of clergy who conferred with the Director is 71.

The Pennsylvania Plan of stewardship Education reached a total of 50 congregations by the end of 1982, with four new congregations added. New stewardship consultants have been added, including the Rev. John Martin, the new rector of Christ Church and St. Michael's and the original Alabama Plan consultant to the Diocese of Pennsylvania from the Diocese of Alabama. Father Martin was appointed by Father Reed as the consultant trainer.

Four general events for the Diocesan family took place during the year, as follows:

1. "Clergy, Communications and money," May 26, 1982, 22 clergy attending;
2. "Small Congregations and Stewardship," September 11, 1982, 65 people attending;
3. Diocesan Stewardship Dinner, September 29, 1982, 180 people attending;
4. The Bucks Deanery Planning Project, June 15, 1982, with 15 in attendance. Total participants in these stewardship events was 282.

The goals for the Stewardship Office for 1983 are:

1. To actively solicit 20 congregations who have not participated in the Pennsylvania Plan at all or recently.
2. To develop an accurate statistical picture of what in fact has been accomplished by the Pennsylvania Plan since 1976.
3. To develop and test an extension of the Pennsylvania Plan, taking into account a year-round approach to stewardship education.
4. To continue to update the skills of the consultants through further training events.
5. To provide an encounter with the Council, Finance and Property Committee, and the Church House staff in an exploratory session on their personal stewardship.

RE-6: THE PLANNED GIVING COMMITTEE

The Planned Giving Committee is a resource available to every parish in the Diocese. We provide information so that Episcopalians can find meaningful ways in which to give thanks to God for their financial blessings by making gifts to their parishes, the Diocese and the national Church.

During the past year the following people have served on the committee, and have contributed considerable time and effort to serve the Diocese: Robert D, Carpenter; Richard Crampton, Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr; the Rev. Ronald L. Reed, Diocesan Stewardship Director; Robert C. Wallis, Episcopal Community Services; and John C. Wittmann, Church of the Holy Nativity, Richboro.

The committee has completed its Planned Giving test with the National Church Office and the Dioceses of Western Massachusetts and Central Pennsylvania. From that joint endeavor has come a better understanding of estate planning literature and what is helpful to parishioners in our Diocese. We hope to apply what we have learned through our activities over the next year.

During the upcoming year we will continue our educational efforts through parish seminars, articles in The Episcopalian/Diocesan News, and direct-mail programs.

We welcome inquiries from parishes interested in using our services.

APPENDIX #22:

RE-9: EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES

As the human services agency of this Diocese, Episcopal Community Services sees itself as accountable not only to Convention, but also to all parishes represented in it. Our ministry to the poor, the sick, and the troubled is really an extension of each parish's Christian outreach, and the work we do is done on your behalf. During the past year, our ministry has continued to experience funding cutbacks that have had profound effects on the agency and on the people we serve.

Immediate Effects of Funding Cuts

In the last two years alone, ECS has suffered governmental funding cutbacks of half a million dollars. Nearly all ECS programs are affected, but those most seriously hurt are:

- Group homes for troubled teenagers–closed. Cutback: $200,000.
- Spring Garden Senior Citizens Center–recently closed. Cutback: $100,000.
- Counseling for truant children (and their families) in Strawberry Mansion area –phased out. Cutback: $30,000.
- Status Offender Program (for teens committing noncriminal offenses)–phased out. Counseling for offenders and their families–severely curtailed. Cutbacks for both programs: $100,000.
- Day care for low-income families–severely curtailed. Cutbacks: $55,000.
- Medical rehabilitation, All Saints' Hospital–nursing salary shift differential pay no longer reimbursed. Cutback: $75,000. Also, costs per patient day increased by $20, but reimbursement increased by only $18.

By the end of last year, it was clear that the ECS's base of support for social service programs had dramatically shifted. Formerly, half of our revenue for social services came from public funds, while the other half came from private sources–contributions from individuals and parishes, income from trusts and endowments, and grants from the Diocese, United Way, and foundation. Now barely one-fourth of our income is from public sources; the other three-fourths must be supplied through private support.

Long-term effects

Although coping with the immediate effects of these cutbacks has been very difficult for the agency and our clients, we can see some positive long-term effects for ECS as a whole. We have been forced to reexamine our goals and to look realistically at both strengths and weaknesses. as a result, we realize that we cannot provide direct services to large numbers of people–meeting the basic needs of the poor must be the government's responsiblity. But we are uniquely suited to provide other related services. ECS can be more flexible and give more individual attention than a large public agency. We can take risks–sponsor programs too difficult or controversial for public agencies. We can be more innovative in our approach to social issues and develop model programs for public agencies to adopt. We can speak out in advocacy on behalf of the poor who go unheard and unserved.

These strengths have influenced the long-range planning efforts of ECS during the past year. At All Saints' Rehabilitation Hospital and Springfield Retirement Residence, planning has just gotten underway; we are now examining ways to supplement their services to the elderly. In our social services division, the opening of the North Broad Street office marks a shift in emphasis. Individual casework will be complemented with advocacy efforts and with the development and strengthening of neighborhood resource groups. Our foster care program will now focus only on children with special needs whom the public agencies cannot place. In both our Life Skills Education program (for families with complex problems) and our In-Home Services for the Elderly, the emphasis is on prevention–prevention of family breakup and institutional placement. Our Chaplaincy Program, a unique service in this area, is being strengthened and expanded.

To continue these services and to develop new approaches requires adequate funding. We have received some grants from private sources that are helping to ease the loss of public monies. But some of these grants are temporary, and even the funds that are permanent don't produce enough income to cover our increasing operating costs and increasing demands for service. We must constantly look for more support from existing sources as well as for new sources of revenue.

To date, the response of parishes and individuals to our 1983 appeal has been heartening. More people and more churches have given more dollars than ever before. For this we are extremely grateful, and we pray that your support will continue to grow. This fall we are starting a Planned Giving Appeal, asking ECS contributors and others to consider how they might include Episcopal Community Services in their estate plans. Perhaps you have already received a letter from our president, Mrs. Bertram L. O'Neill, in this regard. We hope that many of you will perpetuate your Christian witness in this way and thus assure that ECS's ministry to the needy remains viable and strong.

APPENDIX # 23:

Bishop's Task Force on Housing
Report to 200th Diocesan Convention

The members of the Bishop's Task Force on Housing spent some time early this year re-thinking the role of this group. A consensus was reached that the Task Force should:

- be a catalyst to assist developing projects, rather than being directly engaged in operations;
- focus on those with the least resources in need of housing including the elderly poor;
- explore a growing role in advocacy for housing for low income persons;
- work collaboratively with other religious and community groups to achieve our purposes.

In pursuit of these purposes and strategies, the Task Force has been active on several fronts during the past year.

SCHUYLKILL FALLS - PHILADELPHIA

The Schuylkill Falls housing project consists of two high rise buildings with more than 500 units of housing, which are abandoned and boarded up and 260 units of family housing, which are occupied, but in need of renovation. This project in East Falls is owned by the Philadelphia Housing Authority. When the Authority advertised for developers to submit plans for Schuylkill Falls, the Task Force submitted the only proposal by a non-profit group which called for the renovation of the occupied low rise buildings for the existing families and for the redevelopment of the two high rise buildings for low income elderly persons. Many of the other proposals would have removed these units from the low income housing stock in Philadelphia.

In pursuit of this goal the Task Force lent its support to the Schuylkill Falls Tenants Association and submitted a HUD Section 202 application for funding to renovate one of the high rise buildings. Although the Diocese's application will not be funded it now appears that our efforts along with those of other interested community groups have been successful in pursuading the Philadelphia Housing Authority and HUD to make a serious effort to assemble the $20-25 million required for the full renovation project for existing low income families and new low income elderly. The Task Force plans to continue to monitor this situation and offer the resources of the Diocese toward making a successful development project.

INTERDENOMINATIONAL ACTION ASSOCIATION OF CHESTER

The transfer of $40,000 from the $250,000 line of credit originally given to the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation (P.U.F.C.) has enabled the Chester group to leverage those funds to assist low income families. In cooperation with local banks and the Chester Redevelopment Authority vacant housing has been rehabilitated and sold to local low income residents.

DIAMOND PARK - PHILADELPHIA

Nearly one year ago HUD approved $2.6 million funding for a 45 unit housing development for Handicapped persons to be located on two sites in North Philadelphia. This project has four co-sponsors: the Diocese of Pennsylvania, Advocate Community Development Corporation, Church of the Advocate and Episcopal Community Services. With an active Advisory Group and with leadership of members of the Task Force, the planning for this project has gone forward so that construction on the project is expected to begin soon and will be completed by next year.

ST. PETER'S MANOR, PHOENIXVILLE

The Diocese of Pennsylvania acted as co-sponsor with St. Peter's Church, Phoenixville under the leadership of the Rev. Jim Evans in the submission of a Section 202 HUD application for a 55 unit low income elderly project to be constructed on land next to St. Peter's Church. This funding was approved last month and planning is now going forward to develop architectural and construction documents.

SHARED HOUSING

Episcopal Community Services continues to work cooperatively with the National Shared Housing Resource Center to develop six or seven shared households for intergenerational living. The William Penn Foundation grant sponsored by the Diocese and Venture in Mission Funds obtained through the Task Force on Housing have created a revolving loan fund to be used for renovation of properties by the local community groups actually sponsoring the shared household projects.

PHILADELPHIA URBAN FINANCE CORPORATION

P.U.F.C. continued to use the line of credit of $250,000 from the Diocese as a revolving loan fund to provide interim financing for housing construction projects for which the City of Philadelphia provides final payment. In recent months P.U.F.C returned a portion of the funds to the Diocese while they are reassessing the nature of the financing P.U.F.C. should provide, although P.U.F.C. has decided that funding should be provided primarily, if not exclusively, to non-profit housing groups.

The housing problems of low income families and elderly persons continued to grow within the Diocese. The members of the Task Force continue to explore creative ways to contribute to solutions to some of these problems. We urge a similar concern among the parishes and membership of our congregations and we welcome your support.

Respectfully submitted,

(The Rev.) Gilbert S. Avery, III
Chairperson

APPENDIX # 24:

AΩ To the Church in Pennsylvania: A Call to Faithful Witness

ON THE 200TH ANNIVERSARY of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, amid an obscuring blanket of smog, litter cast-offs from a society obsessed by consumption, the clatter of our machinery of power and production, and the silence of our factories being closed and abandoned, a serious call can be heard, words of grace and judgement from him who is and who was and who is to come . . . from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the first-born from the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. (Revelation 1:4-5)

This call becomes real for us as we envision our God, not as a God of the past allowing secure satisfaction in our 200 year history, but the God of the present, the one who is, incorporating the past and future in an eternal present. This is the God who reveals himself in Christ as faithful witness, first-born from the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. Such a revelation demands of us an obedient response.

In his death on the cross, Jesus is the faithful witness to God's way of overcoming evil through self-giving love. In this witness, Jesus would include us all in bearing the cost of sacrifice even unto death. Can you hear this serious call?

As first-born from the dead, Jesus through the act of resurrection claims victory over death and leads the way for all. We are called to risk, knowing that nothing can compare to the glory as yet unseen. Can you hear this serious call?

Christ ascended is ruler of the kings of the earth. The powers of this world are only in the shadow of the higher power that is his by right. The rule of our Lord is exercised over the world of hard facts in which we as Christians constantly find ourselves. We are called to face our difficult problems always with an eye to the one who reigns. Can you hear this serious call?

How are we to be faithful witnesses, risking death to gain life with our Lord? How are we to act as those who are constantly aware of the one who rules? The Anglican response traditionally has been to view itself as a communion with a mission to transform the nations to a "very and true common wealth." Behind the powers of the earth, God rules, calling us to seek the well being of all. In our tradition, this became clearest in the sacramental expression of the church at worship. There the nation at prayer was the outward and visible sign of common wealth. New life was proclaimed and faithful service to the one God was called forth. In our own history in Pennsylvania, it has often become manifest in acts of loving service to the community. We think of Bishop White and the others who courageously met the needs of plague victims and prisoners in their day.

We in the Diocese of Pennsylvania at times are true to our mission, while at other times we find ourselves seriously short of the mark. In issuing this call, we will risk being specific in citing instances of faithfulness and unfaithfulness, trusting that our fallible and partial judgement may nevertheless contain something of what the Spirit has to say to the church in Pennsylvania.

When our bishop and lay leaders are able to address both the diocese and, by means of the media, the whole community on issues of nuclear disarmament, as they recently did through the diocesan disarmament conference, they present a visible witness to the rule of Christ – the prince of peace. They have heard his serious call.

In enabling the construction and rehabilitation of homes in our inner cities, we not only meet human need for shelter but we also witness to the coming rule of God. Jeremiah was called to purchase a field at Anatoth when the renewal of Jerusalem seemed remote. The Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, has said that houses, fields and vineyards will again be bought in this land. (Jeremiah 32:15) Just as tangible a witness as Jeremiah's land purchase is our diocese's extension of credit to the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation to enable community groups to rebuild and renew their neighborhoods. We have heard the serious call.

Our witness to the unity of the races and sexes in Christ must be visible as well. We are given the vision of a vast throng . . . from every nation, of all tribes, peoples and languages, standing in front of the throne and before the Lamb. (Revelation 7:9) We in the Episcopal Urban Caucus called for the election of a Black suffragan bishop as one important means open to us to give visible expression to our unity and advance the work of evangelism. While that particular call has been rejected, we affirm the other ways in which racial unity is being expressed in our COAC congregations, in campus ministry, and in the addition of a Black staff person to work with all our congregations.

On the other side, we find ourselves lacking in the clear presence and witness which should be ours. What sign do we create when our corporate headquarters is buried in a bank building and we have no diocesan center? We doubt not the inward grace, but where is the outward and visible sign?

What sign do we create of Christ's rule when people see abandoned Episcopal churches or crumbling structures? Some must turn away from this sight rationalizing that the clergy are not doing their job or the people will not help themselves – not realizing our corporate failure to uphold our witness.

We further abandon our witness when we raise up fewer and fewer clergy who have the training or the desire to serve in the hard, often poor, places. Nor have we kept the promises we made to intensify the recruitment and support of minority clergy throughout the diocese.

Our witness is unfaithful when we seek parochial security at the expense of outside giving. We give on average such small percentages of our income to God, and parishes have given a continually decreasing percentage of their incomes to the diocese, while expenses rise. This means that $85,000 in programs are proposed to be cut from the 1984 budget. And the heaviest burden of these cuts is to be borne by our poorest deanery! Thus we deny the common wealth of all our people.

Looking to Jesus, our risen and exalted head, in full recognition of our obedience and disobedience to his rule, we call the diocese, all of us, to a truer and more faithful witness.

We dare not lose our vision by declaring what we cannot do or cannot afford. The more visible and faithful is our witness, the more Christ's people will be motivated to give for the support of it.

---

Let us find a center for our diocese with which we can all identify, preferably located among the poor we are especially called to serve.

Let us add to our policy of financial disclosure a policy of program disclosure, showing the people of our diocese where their money is going, what the programs are, and setting a vision before them.

Let us recognize parish ministry as basic to our urban neighborhoods, train clergy and lay leaders in the performance of that ministry, and support and build up the presence of our churches there.

Let diocesan staff be increasingly intentional about working with the poor, listening to them, and helping them develop programs that meet their congregational and community needs.

Let us increase our personal giving to our parishes and our parochial giving to the diocese. More affluent parishes must see beyond their own walls and gardens to the campuses, the hospitals, the prisons, and the other outpost ministries of the diocese and our worldwide communion.

In the diocese where Absalom Jones served as priest and where the first women priests were ordained, let us practice affirmative action at all levels of our recruitment, placement and promotion.

Let us develop a clearer and more consistent diocesan witness against war and the politics of privilege, whether in Washington, D.C. or the centers of power in our own cities.

We conclude this call with the simple but forthright challenge of the Jubilee Ministry established by General Convention in 1982: "Members of the Episcopal Church must be encouraged to take an active role in meeting the needs of poor and oppressed people and in the struggles against the causes of such suffering."

To him who became poor for us and now lives and reigns forever, be all glory and honor. Amen. Maranatha.

RE-1: THE FAIRMOUNT TEAM MINISTRY

The Fairmount Team Ministry is an association of six Episcopal congregations of the Fairmount Deanery located primarily in the Kensington section of Philadelphia. The primary purpose of the Team, which was organized in 1974, is to keep alive the witness of the Episcopal Church in this section of the city. Our congregations–St. Nathanael's, Christ Church & St. Ambrose, St. Barnabas', St. Luke's, The Free Church of St. John, and our newest member, Church of the Good Shepherd, represents black, white, and Hispanic neighborhoods. These neighborhoods all share in varying degrees the common problems of unemployment, abandoned housing, alcoholism/drug abuse, sub-standard school programs, plant closings, and a generally declining quality of life.

In this context the Fairmount Team Ministry provides a support system for the clergy and lay staff of the congregations by way of regular meetings on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. A Team Council of lay representatives from each congregation meets monthly to provide a forum for planning shared programs that address both the institutional needs of the Church and the human needs of the community.

A primary focus of our ministry this year (and next) is youth ministry, and to this end we have hired, and acquired funding for, a full-time minister. At this time we are also in the process of raising funds to purchase a van for our youth work and for work with the elderly. The money we receive through the Diocesan budget goes to support our collective work in Hispanic ministry, stewardship, evangelism, youth ministry, the Episcopal Urban Caucus, and to purchase collectively several items such as Church Kalendars, inserts with Sunday propers, palms for Palm Sunday, and illuminations for the Sunday readings. Other programs of the Team include food cupboards in several congregations and an emergency fuel oil program.

The congregations of the Fairmount Team Ministry have established partnership relationships with several "suburban" congregations including St. Philip's, Oreland; St. David's, Radnor; Good Samaritan, Paoli; St. Martin's, Chestnut Hill; Christ Church & St. Michael's, Germantown; Holy Trinity, Lansdale; and Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr.

Our ministry in the community is enhanced by cooperation with several established community groups including Kensington Action Now, Kensington Area Revitalization Project, Kensington Joint Action Council, Kensington Neighborhood Action Council, Hunting Park Neighborhood Action Council, The Lighthouse, COMHAR (Community Mental Health and Retardation), St. Francis' Inn, St. Anne's Senior Center, and the St. Dismas Fellowship.

APPENDIX #27:

RE-3: ALCOHOL, ALCOHOL ABUSE, AND ALCOHOLISM COMMITTEE

The 1979 General Convention passed a resolution that requested each diocese appoint a committee to develop a policy on alcoholism which would:

1. Provide a written procedure for treatment of clergy and diocesan employees and members of their families who suffer from the illness of alcoholism.

2. Include in its policy a statement covering the use of alcoholic beverages at church functions and/or on church property, with particular emphasis on the provision of non-alcoholic choices.

3. Provide an employee policy statement which includes assurances of job security and insurance coverage for those completing a prescribed course of alcoholic treatment.

In July, 1980, Bishop Ogilby appointed a committee on Alcohol, Alcohol Abuse, and Alcoholism to carry out these mandates. In February, 1981, this commitee submitted its final recommendations. The Standing Committee endorsed these recommendations at their February 24, 1981, meeting. A copy of The Procedures for Alcoholic Clergy and The Use of Alcohol at Church Functions is available from Church House.

Some congregations have adopted a policy about alcoholic beverages at church functions; however, a number have not done this. The 4-A Committee is available to help any congregation formulate a parish policy that is consistent with its norms and customs. If a congregation desires assistance in this matter, it is requested to call the 4-A Committee chairperson, the Rev. Glenn M. Matis, (215) 598-3405.

The 4-A Committee generally meets the second Tuesday of every month at Church House from 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Once a year, the Committee meets for half a day to formulate goals and objectives for the coming year. Some of the goals and objectives for this year are to:

1. Speak in every deanery about alcohol, alcohol abuse, and alcoholism. So far, five deaneries have a date scheduled, four are reviewing possible dates, and three have not responded.

2. Present a program on "The Alcoholic and the Family" in mid-September, 1983. This program will be done in conjunction with the Family Life Ministry Committee.

3. Visit different alcoholism treatment centers. This will enable us to make appropriate referrals.

4. Present a resolution about alcohol, alcohol abuse, and alcoholism at the 200th Diocesan Convention.

5. Encourage all clergy to attend AA and Al-Anon meetings for educational purposes. One member of the Committee will attend a meeting with them and a member will meet before and after the AA or Al-Anon meeting to address any concerns they may have or answer any questions. This visit will enable the clergy to identify another community resource for referrals.

6. Write occasional articles in The Episcopalian/Diocesan News about alcohol, alcohol abuse, and alcoholism.

The 4-A Committee is a broad-based one. We have recovering alcoholics, social drinkers, male, female, clergy, lay people, professional and non-professional. If anyone is interested in joining the committee, please notify Committee Chairman, The Rev. Glenn M. Matis or Church House, (215) LO7-6650.

RE-2: CONSULTANT NETWORK, PARISH DEVELOPMENT SERVICES

Mission Statement

The Consultant Network is a resource in the Diocese of Pennsylvania called to assist congregations and other groups in becoming more effective in their ministries by addressing leadership and organizational issues in the context of the Christian faith.

Report

Within the past year and a half, consultants have been active in more than two dozen congregations and committees of the Diocese. These consultations have ranged from help with planning and goal setting to evangelism to conflict management. Consultants assisted also in the design of the meetings that introduced the Standardized Accounting Manual to wardens and treasurers.

Consultants with special training, working with the Diocesan Evangelism Office, are involved in helping parishes with concerns about evangelism, renewal, and church growth. We are prepared to assist congregations with issues around SWEEPS, Next Step in Mission, and Jubilee Ministry.

Consultants have recently completed an advanced training program in conflict management and are prepared to offer more services in this area.

The third annual New Ministries Conference, run by consultants working with George Soule and the Bishop, was attended by 14 participants. This conference helps clergy in new ministries deal with issues related to leaving their former situation as well as to beginning a new situation.

For further information about the Consultant Network, please feel free to contact the Rev. Donald Graff at 425-2933.

APPENDIX #29:

RE-4: DIOCESAN HUNGER COMMITTEE

The Diocesan Hunger Committee is part of the National Church's network committed to the eradication of hunger, poverty, and malnutrition. The primary ministry of this network is enabling individuals and parishes to respond to the needs of the hungry. Education about the social, political, and economic aspects of hunger is the basis of this ministry.

During the past year the Hunger Committee has:

1. Provided speakers, audio-visual, and other resources for hunger education to parishes, deaneries, schools, etc., which are seeking to learn the causes and dimensions of the issue and strategies for overcoming hunger. It has submitted brief news items to Diocesan News about local efforts to relieve hunger through soup kitchens and emergency food cupboards and the Greater Philadelphia Food Bank.

2. Joined forces with other organizations in the community to develop means of aiding those most severely affected by lack of food and other basic services:

- Participated in local CROP Walk to raise money for hunger relief and development projects at home and overseas.
- Represented the Episcopal Church on the Board of the Greater Philadelphia Food Bank, the Emergency Food Network of the Metropolitan Christian Council of Philadelphia, World Food Day Committee, and Nutritional Development Services of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

3. Urged elected officials and the community to call for increased use of our national resources to meet basic human needs at home and abroad. Members of the Hunger Committee have written and visited the local offices of Pennsylvania Congressional representatives to advocate appropriate levels of funding for domestic food programs, UNICEF, targeted aid development assistance, a domestic grain reserve for famine relief, and other legislation to relieve hunger, malnutrition, and poverty.

4. Supported local hunger programs by publicizing the need for volunteers and financial assistance. Members of the committee themselves volunteer their time at church-supported food cupboards, soup kitchens, and the Greater Philadelphia Food Bank.

5. Sent representatives from this Diocese for education and training at Provincial Hunger Taskforce conferences to become more aware of the many facets of hunger and developing strategies to overcome chronic undernourishment and poverty.

APPENDIX #30:

RE-13: DIOCESAN FOOD CRISIS FUND

The scope of this committee continues to widen with the increasing needs for food cupboards and soup kitchens. Many parishes and individuals are responding to the call for help with regular donations and with special ingatherings and designations. Thanks to this response, donations this past year increased to $13,185.25 from last year's $6,800. (The ECW year runs from May 1 to April 30, so this reflects funds collected by April 30.)

The committee has expanded, and six meetings have been held since June, 1982, with the following developments: a) An annual questionnaire to cupboards is sent out every spring. The replies establish criteria for donations. b) Disbursements are made at least quarterly. c) Networks are being made with Metropolitan Christian Council of Philadelphia, KYW Action Line, various county Opportunity Council listings. A feature article was placed in the February Diocesan News, and a report made to the March meeting of Diocesan Council.

The following food centers have received funds this year: Church of the Advocate's food cupboard, Philadelphia; Church of the Advocate's soup kitchen, Philadelphia; Bucks County Community Center, Bristol; Calvary Episcopal Church, Rockdale; Christ Church and St. Ambrose, Philadelphia; Colonial Neighborhood Council, Conshohocken; Coordinating Council for Health and Welfare, Warminster; Church of the Crucifixion, Philadelphia; and Fish Interfaith, Norristown.

Also receiving aid were: Interfaith of Eastern Montgomery County, Abington; LaCommunidad Hispana, Kennett Square; Lighthouse Community Center, Philadelphia; Open Line, East Greenville; Pottstown Interfaith; Rafters Charities, Philadelphia; St. Thomas' Church, Philadelphia; House of Umoja, Philadelphia; St. Luke's Church, Philadelphia; Coatesville Area Emergency Food Cupboard; St. Augustine of Hippo, Norristown; Church of the Advent, Hatboro; St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia; St. Mary's Church, Bainbridge, Philadelphia; Bucks County Opportunity Council; and St. Elisabeth's Church, Philadelphia.

In mid-June a grant of approximately $14,000 was awarded to the fund, to be divided among the metropolitan Philadelphia cupboards and kitchens. This money came through the MCCP's application for a federal Emergency Job Training Bill grant which is funneled through the state. An additional $5,000 was received from the Diocesan Council.

Food cupboards and kitchens are not just winter projects. Hunger needs are constant. The committee hopes that the Diocese will continue to recognize the ongoing need of our friends in Christ.

APPENDIX #31:

RE-15: DIOCESAN COMMITTEE FOR WORLD RELIEF

Pledged to carrying on the Presiding Bishop's Fund ministry of relief, rehabilitation, development and refugee/migration affairs.

Watchwords for the responsibility of this committee might well be "Awareness and Response." Awareness of human needs, information about our Church's involvement. Presiding Bishop John M. Allin, at General Convention, challenged us to "respond to the needs that plague people. . .by doing the very best job we can." In order to fulfill this charge on the part of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the World Relief Committee has taken the following actions:

- The committee has been extended through the appointment of a coordinate member for each of the deaneries. Through their contacts we are generating awareness of the direct response of the Episcopal Church throughout the world. This network is gradually developing into a parish network to stimulate awareness and response through inter-relationships between ourselves and others, at home and far away.
- Through this same network we are working collegially with the Diocesan Hunger Committee and the Committee on Refugee Resettlement. This team is prepared to provide parish, group, deanery, or one-on-one assistance with programing for response.

Virginia Smith, chair of the Hunger Committee, has stated recently "Episcopalians are aware that the Presiding Bishop's Fund responds to emergency needs, but less well known is the contribution it makes toward solving the most serious aspect of global hunger; widespread, chronic malnutrition. We need to be aware of the hunger problems and ways in which we can respond effectively."

The Episcopal Church, through the Presiding Bishop's Fund, has a contract with the Federal Department of Immigration for refugee resettlement. In order that the Diocese of Pennsylvania might better assist in this ministry, a sub-committee of the World Relief Committee was formed in October, 1981. Mrs. James (Frances) Dean is chairperson.

The Refugee Resettlement activity reports:

Our aim is to encourage churches, singly or in partnership or cluster to sponsor some of the estimated 14 million of the world's refugees. We are developing programs, resources, and supports to help with sponsorships.

One of our beginning tasks was to contact many who had been involved in resettlement work and to provide information about the services we offer. We enjoyed many of you who have shared in the joy of this ministry.

We contacted the 26 congregations which were involved in the most recent wave of sponsorships during the Indochinese crisis. We developed a questionnaire and established that churches in our Diocese are responsible for saving, at the barest minimum, 135 lives and affecting untold others. Part of the work of our committee is to continue to help with these sponsorships.

Two of our members attended a Province III workshop in Washington, D.C., during April, concerning the P.B.'s Fund program for refugee resettlement.

We have also been looking into Sanctuary sponsorship. Speakers have told us of their experiences with this ministry. We have also met with the Hispanic Ministry Committee to share our programs.

As encouragement for continuation of resettlement in the Diocese it is important that our people be aware of the great work which has been done, of the wonderful relationships which have developed, the success stories. A truly great ministry of love.

RE-16: THE COMMITTEE ON UNIVERSAL NUCLEAR DISARMAMENT

The Committee has been active during the past 12 months, meeting monthly and pursuing various projects and assignments in between. Because our charge involves providing education and action opportunities, this report is divided into two sections dealing with education and action, respectively.

Education. The committee has established a Task Force on Education which meets every other month in conjunction with full committee meetings. The principal education projects have been:

- A Resource Fair held December 4 to introduce representatives of parishes in the Diocese to films, slides, Bible study, course guides, and other materials available for parish education.
- A monthly calendar of events, now being mailed to a list of some 475 names.
- Assistance to Philadelphia Theological Institute in holding a conference on Christian Faith and the Nuclear Arms Race in January, 1983.
- Co-sponsorship of a conference on peace with the Common Heritage Institute at Villanova, March 10-12; the Concert for Humanity, April 17, organized by members of the Philadelphia Orchestra; and the Haverford Peace Fair, held in early June.
- Initiation of a Speakers Bureau in January, headed by the Rev. Thomas McClellan, which has arranged a training session and has furnished speakers to some 14 parishes in the past four months.

Action. The Committee also has an Action Task Force. Action items include:

- Organized participation in Lobby Day for the Nuclear Freeze Resolution, March 8, in Washington.
- Established outreach to the parishes through the deaneries. Most deaneries now have a committee member assigned to meet with them and assist in preparing programs and activities, and several deanery meetings have been held or will shortly be held. The committee will furnish a speaker for any deanery meeting where issues of nuclear arms control or peace are to be discussed.
- Endorsed and began working with the Philadelphia "Jobs with Peace" campaign, to connect the arms race with issues of jobs, education, and social concerns.
- Opposed the funding of the MX missile in calls and letters both in November, 1982, and May, 1983.
- Linked with National Network established by Church Center, and participated in a conference "To Make Peace" in Denver called by the Presiding Bishop; now building an informal network in Province III among peace officers of member Dioceses.
- Provided financial assistance to Evangelicals for Social Action, Pennsylvania Campaign for a Nuclear Weapons Freeze, and Voice of Humanity to help with start-up. In the current year's budget there will not be room for such financial assistance to groups outside the Diocese; however, the committee will help the Philadelphia Theological Institute in planning another conference on theological aspects of the nuclear arms race and will help with costs.

APPENDIX #33:

RE-20: THE BISHOP'S DIOCESAN COMMITTEE ON FAMILY LIFE MINISTRY

Family Life Ministry continues as the Diocesan extension of the National Church's concern for the quality of family life. This concern was initiated through the National Commission on Social and Specialized Ministries which identified "The Family" as the focus for a major ministry throughout the Church.

The Family Life Ministry Committee functions as one of the Bishop's Special Diocesan Committees. The major task of the committee is to develop and reinforce ways the Church can minister to families in our changing society.

The committee agreed to use the definition which was adopted by the National Church at the Episcopal Conference of Families in 1978: "The family, in its many forms is vital and flourishing. We need to reexamine our basic assumptions about families, continue to minister to them where they are, and where they hurt."

In response to concerns which came in from a questionnaire, which was sent to parishes for input, a series of workshops were designed under the title "Have Workshops–Will Travel." They are being used by parishes and deaneries.

The first Diocesan Family Conference, "Exploration into Family Prayer," was followed by another conference, "A New Life Style for a New Age–Living with Less," last fall. The families attending this conference went away with a storehouse of ideas shared by the keynote speaker, Dr. Ronald Sider, and well-informed consultants. The day was really one of an "extended family." During this spring, the special needs of aging parents became the focus of a Sunday afternoon workshop with a knowledgeable panel of consultants. Helpful resource packets were distributed at each event. A grant given through Venture in Mission has been used to underwrite the major expenses for the workshops, conferences, and resource packets.

Family Life Ministry is an in-house ministry to families in our parishes throughout the Diocese. It is consciousness raising rather than hard sell.

In summation, Family Life Ministry's areas of involvement in developing and reinforcing ways the Church can minister to families in our changing society include:

- The two above mentioned conferences in cooperation with the Episcopal Churchwomen
- "Have Workshops–Will Travel" series with expert consultants
- "Energy for Employment" project for the unemployed with Episcopal Community Services and the Philadelphia Presbytery
- Alcoholism workshops in cooperation with the Diocesan Committee on Alcohol, Alcohol Abuse, and Alcoholism
- Delaware Valley Regional Conference on Families, a forum for many segments of the wider community to discuss and work together on family concerns
- The National Episcopal (In)Dignity of Aging Conference locally cosponsored with several other interested church organizations
- A sponsor of the Philadelphia area "Let's Talk: Campaign for Responsible Parenthood Preparation by Teenagers and Parents"
- A projected conference in the late fall on "Drugs and the Family" with Diocesan Youth Ministry
- As a Bicentennial Special a Diocesan "Family Day for Fun" is being planned. Watch for details!

RE-11: COMMITTEE TO MONITOR THE NESTLE BOYCOTT

Past History

1977: Boycott of Nestle products initiated because of the Nestle Company's aggressive marketing practices in sales of infant formula in developing countries.

1979: Diocesan Committee to Monitor the Nestle Boycott appointed by Diocesan Council.

June 1980: Diocesan Council endorsed the Nestle Boycott.

May, 1981: World Health Organization's Code of Marketing for Breastmilk Substitues approved by the World Health Assembly.

March, 1982: Nestle Company announced that it would comply with the WHO Code and issued new instructions to its sales people.

May, 1982: The Nestle Company announced the establishment of an Audit Commission to monitor its practices.

Sept., 1982: The Audit Commission issued its first quarterly report. At that time, Nestle issued new marketing instructions, taking into account the Audit Commission's recommendations for changes.

Dec., 1981: Audit Commission's Second Quarterly Report indicated that complaints about Nestle's infant formula marketing practices and policies were being processed by the Committee.
March, 1983: Audit Commission's Third Quarterly Report issued. It stated that the complaints had indicated violations of the Instructions and the Code "but the responses have indicated a sincere attempt to correct the deficiencies and to resolve the tough implementation problems."
March, 1983: Infant Formula Action Coalition initiates a campaign to focus on boycotting Taster's Choice to persuade Nestle to complete the steps toward full conformity with the WHO Code
May, 1983: World Health Assembly meets in Geneva. Discussion of the Code lasted for several hours. No changes were made. The Assembly meets again in 1985.

From Committee Reports

Jan. 15, 1983: In its annual report to Diocesan Council, the Committee stated that Nestle was moving closer to the WHO Code but that the boycott continued. The majority of committee members urged that Diocesan Council continue its support of the boycott until Nestle's Marketing Instructions and their implementation complied with the WHO Code. The fourth member of the committee recommended suspension of the boycott for the time being until there was an opportunity to see how the revised Code was implemented.

The matter was referred to the Strategy Committee for study. It was asked to report to Diocesan Council's March, 1983, meeting.
March, 1983: In its report to Council, the Strategy Committee stated: "We believe that it is not appropriate for Strategy Committee to make an in-depth study of the content of this matter for to do so would require us to become a substitute for the existing Committee to Monitor the Nestle Boycott." Taking into consideration the minority opinion, it moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

"That Council maintain its present position until May, when at a key meeting Nestle will have an opportunity to make signed commitments of compliance with the stated goals of the boycott; and

"That Council consider at its June meeting new action based on reports from the Nestle Boycott Committee of the activity taken in May."

June, 1983: The following recommendation was made to Diocesan Council:

"Three members of the Committee to Monitor the Nestle Boycott believe that the International Boycott Committee is best qualified to determine support of the Boycott Committee is very important at this time. Accordingly, they recommend that Dicoesan Council take no new action at this time, pending receipt of additional information."

RE-8: COALITION OF AIDED CONGREGATIONS (COAC)

During the past year Bishop Ogilby decided to spend some time with the Coalition, as its chair, to review its history, to look at its present, and to plan for its future. As most people in the Diocese know COAC was his creation and was nurtured by him during its early years.

COAC has emphasized stewardship and Church growth and participated in programs of its own and with others.

The Pie Committee is assigned the task of looking carefully at the requests for funding of the individual congregations and, within the constraints of the Diocesan budget, to make recommendations for as equitable a distributions of the funds as possible. This is a difficult task but the committee works long and hard to prepare its recommendations. The 15-member Task Force makes the decisions at a regular meeting after Diocesan Convention has voted on the budget.

Finding ways to save on energy costs and sharing these ideas has become an important part of COAC planning. Time is set aside on the agenda regularly for discussion. Some maintenance funds are available to the congregations and emphasis is put on energy savings and caring for old buildings as frugally as possible.

At the Annual Assembly the members of the Task Force are elected for a three-year term with one-third of the members rotating off each year. The Task Force makes the decisions for the Coalition. Most recent meetings have been held at St. Asaph's Church; all meetings are open and everyone encouraged to participate in the discussion. Only the Task Force members may vote. Attendance and enthusism remain consistently high. The sharing of concerns, ideas, plans, and outreach ministry to the various communities is an important part of every meeting. The Coalition of Aided Congregations plays a vital role in the life of the Diocese.

APPENDIX # 36:

VENTURE IN MISSION EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

REPORT TO 200th DIOCESAN CONVENTION

Heard recently was the comment that when a program proves of value it draws support and grows under its own momentum. So it has been with Venture. Parishes as well as individual parishioners continue making contributions and pledges for a program serving the young, the old, the poor, the needy, in every part of the diocese; and through the National case as well.

By the end of 1982, twenty-five congregations had paid or topped 100% of their pledge. Fifty-one were over the 80% mark. A heartfelt thanks to all who have and are still supporting this effort.

With continued donations and interest income from short-term investments, Diocesan Council approved additional grants of $200,000 to Venture projects. As few had received 100% of their original requests, it was good news to be able to narrow the gap between request and allocation and to further meet project needs. By the close of 1983, we expect to have sufficient funds to make a further allocation. Venture is not yet ended and the good work goes on!

Evaluators, at their May meeting, expressed the need of some smaller projects to learn ways to develop new sources of funding. To explore this in depth, a seminar on grantsmanship was held on September 12. Attendees were able to discuss the how-to's and where-to's of fund-raising with panelists from two foundations, the United Thank Offering, Diocesan Program and Budget and representatives from two projects successful in attaining foundation support.

We have seen projects move through the planning stages, overcome growing pains and organize in effective agents for service. All that has been accomplished forms a basis for broadening our horizons, raising our sights to move forward in meeting mission needs -- both known and unknown.

From Dag Hammerskjold, "For all that has been -- Thanks! For all that will be -- Yes!"

Respectfully Submitted,

Dixie G. Wigton, Chair
Venture In Mission Executive Committee

APPENDIX #37:

RE-7: THE COMMISSION ON RACISM

"Racism" is not simply a strong word for racial prejudice or bigotry. It refers rather to a structural or procedural defect in the organization of society allowing one racial group to prosper at the expense of others. Where it exists, it constitutes a problem not only for its victims but also, in the long run, for those who, in the short run, seem to benefit from it. This is especially true in the Church, where the demands of catholicity, not to mention basic Christian love, are frustrated when any group of people is excluded on the basis of race from contributing significantly to the common good of all.

Racism was debated at the first ecumenical council, the Council of Jerusalem, described in the Book of Acts. By the grace of God the views of St. Paul prevailed at the council and were adopted as the official position of the Church. We know, however, from the letters of St. Paul the practice of racism continued long after the theory of a preferred or privileged race was rejected. It continues even today, and it continues in our midst.

The Commission on Racism was established by resolution of Diocesan Council on May 15, 1982. Its charge is "to initiate, facilitate, and monitor programs aimed at the eradication of institutional racism in the corporate life of the Diocese." It must be understood, however, the eradication of institutional racism in the corporate life of the Diocese is the responsibility of the whole Diocese, not just of the Commission and not just of the victimized groups. It is for that reason The Commission on Racism has embarked on an effort to open the issue of racism for discussion in every congregation.

In his address to the 199th Convention of this Diocese, Bishop Ogilby said:

"We in the Delaware Valley frequently take pride in the varieties of the peoples included in our local church, our Diocese. We are aware of the wide range of socio-economic, ethnic, and cultural variations that are present in our midst which can enrich our corporate and common life. This human diversity can make our claim to be a catholic and inclusive Christian community credible, but the devil is also in our midst. He is playing his racist game on us individually and institutionally. Individually, it is called racial prejudice, which is attributing the worst qualities of a few members of a race to all members of that race. Institutionally, it is the systemic exclusion of one or more races from significant participation and positions of power in that institution by intent and design or by accident and default. In either case, the result is the same—people, because of race, are excluded—and God's plan for his world is debased. There can be no question in our minds or in our hearts about what God's Word is concerning this evil wound; it is absolutely audible. Likewise there can be no doubt about God's deed, made evident in the life and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth; it is absolutely visible."

The Commission on Racism offers itself as a resource to the Diocese in responding to this challenge.

RE-14: CLERGY DEPLOYMENT–1982-1983

There has been a slight decrease in deployment activity during the past 12 months: but an increase over last year in the proportion of senior clergy positions filled from within the Diocese.

There is continued interest in establishing written contracts and formal evaluation processes in clergy-vestry relationships. Various approaches are being developed to be adapted for specific situations.

The third annual Diocesan Conference for Clergy in New Ministries was attended by 15 people.

Although the Episcopal Church as a whole still has more ordained people than it can provide salaries for, there is no surplus of clergy ready, willing, and able to fulfill the call of demanding parish situations. Stress and "burnout" continue to be serious concerns for everyone involved in the care and placement of clergy. Vestries share the responsibility for setting reasonable criteria and for making sure clergy take good care of themselves and their families.

APPENDIX #42:

RE-18: COMMISSION ON CLERGY SALARIES AND PENSIONS

Since its establishment by Convention in 1968, the commission has developed a unique role in the Church, in its jurisdiction and its right to address Convention directly. Today our mandate, by canon and informally by Council and Convention, has evolved into a four-fold role:

- Assistance in relocation of clergy who have severed relationships with a parish–a new role added by canonical amendment in 1978.
- Policy guidance in establishing appropriate ranges of pay for the parish clergy –a role established with adoption of the "New Process" in 1975.
- Policy advice for various constituencies in the other areas of employee benefits and clergy perquisites–a role still evolving.
- Financing premiums for life insurance and for delinquent pension assessments, in emergency or transition cases for parish clergy–originally one of the most important roles, but now the least.

This report discusses the activities of the commission in these areas, with focus on the first three.

Clergy Relocation Assistance

During 1982 and 1983, the bulk of the commission's time was spent in reviewing individual cases of assistance requested for clergy who had separated from a parish position, to help in the relocation process. This assistance ranges from transitional severance grants supplementing local parish severance pay to assistance in retraining for secular employment (rather than unavailable stipendiary employment in a parish ministry).

Each situation involved personalized attention, and a special sub-committee of the commission, currently chaired by Ms. Marie Lennan, spent a great deal of time investigating, reporting to the commission, and following through as needed to assure that the Church's monies were being expended thoughtfully, and to further God's work.

In 1982 and 1983 through May there were some 16 cases which required individual attention, and assistance. Our 1982 cash expenditures were about $25,000, but commitments for assistance were at least twice this amount. For the first five months of 1983 our cash expenditures were almost $17,000, for serious and urgent personal situations of clergy who have served the Church as loyally and faithfully as they could.

Thus, this effort is expensive; in fact since amendment of the Canon in 1978, the too-comfortable commission surplus from parish assessments has disappeared, and last year we had to ask for a tripling of the rate of the previous few years. I am happy to report that the current rate now seems to be adequate, and we are asking only for a continuation of the current rate this year, instead of the rate increase we feared would be needed.

Salary Administration

Last year, with the assistance of the Rev. Richard Kirk and a volunteer, Ms. Aileen O'Callaghan, a consultant with the firm that helped to develop the New Process, we developed an index formula relating to the revised benchmarks published at the end of the previous year, which provides a short-cut tool for grading most jobs, allowing the commission membership to focus on the "special" jobs which do not readily fall into the formula. We plan in future years to devote more attention to salary administration, including establishing a process for routine audit and review of gradings, in which the index formula should be an invaluable tool.

We also considered at some length the pay policy which we feel is most appropriate for the clergy of this Diocese, and reaffirmed the position recommended last year, that pay should relate to the average of non-profit institutions in general. Our recommendations for 1984 salary ranges are based on the latest available data with respect to this group.

It should be noted, however, that the clergy in COAC (Coalition of Aided Congregations) do not seem to be as well served by our New Process as they should be, to date at least. Primarily, this seems to be the result of economic factors beyond the commission's jurisdiction, so that solutions must come from elsewhere even though the commission is anxious to be of as much assistance as possible.

Employee Benefits and Perquisites

In the last Convention we were directed to investigate dental plans and present a program to Convention for consideration. We have done the investigation we feel is appropriate, with some assistance from those among the clergy who feel strongly that a program should be established. Our decision is to present a program underwritten through the Church Life Insurance Company, which we believe is probably the most appropriate among those available.

However, our recommendation to Convention is that no such program be adopted at this time. Our reasons for this negative recommendation are several:

- Dental insurance is costly–in the order of $500-$600 per year per family unit, with increases that must be expected (which in the past have exceeded the cost-of-living increase rates).
- A substantial administrative burden would be added to the staff. The treasurer estimates a minimum first-year cost of $4,000 not now budgeted.
- If the parish clergy are to be covered, custom and precedent indicates the staff should be covered also, a substantial amount not now budgeted.
- If retired clergy are to be covered following custom and practice, a special extra premium would be required, from someone, and this would also be costly.
- While the prevalence of dental coverage is increasing, the majority of dioceses do not as yet provide such coverage, and we do not feel that leadership in this area is a priority item.

In another area, clergy housing, the commission unanimously endorsed this position that ownership of housing by individuals should be encouraged, where practicable, and that parishes should be encouraged to assist in developing down payments, as well as providing appropriate housing allowances.

RE-10: SPIRITUAL GROWTH COMMITTEE

The Spiritual Growth Committee continues to publish the Diocesan Prayer Calendar twice a year.

In February, 1982, committee members participated in an Evening of Reflection led by the Rt. Rev. Lyman Ogilby.

Two conferences were sponsored by the Spiritual Growth Committee during 1982:

April 14–Dimensions of Spiritual Direction led by the Rev. Dr. John Booty and Canon Mary Michael Simpson, OSH, at St. Luke's, Germantown, with 38 congregations represented by 104 persons.

October 8-9–A Prayer in Practice Workshop led by Harry and Emily Griffith of the Anglican Fellowship of Prayer, at St. Asaph's, Bala-Cynwyd, with 40 congregations represented by 97 persons.

In 1981, formal ties were made with the Anglican Fellowship of Prayer and the Rev. Edward L. Schultz attended the AFP conference in Toronto in May, 1982.

During Lent of 1983 five members of the committee provided leadership for a series on spirituality at St. Dunstan's Church, Blue Bell. Committee members have also given talks on the spiritual life at various parishes in the Diocese.

The Rev. Frank T. Griswold led a retreat for the members of the committee on May 27-28, 1983, at The Providence Center in Yardley.

The committee ordinarily meets the second Thursday evening of every month, September through May.

APPENDIX # 44:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON INCORPORATION
October 14, 1983

1. The Memorial Church of St. Paul, Overbrook.

The "Proposed Charter per Diocesan Model" approved by the Vestry on February 21, 1982 has been submitted to, reviewed and approved by the Committee on Incorporation of the Diocese as being in substantial conformity with the Model Articles of Incorporation adopted by the Convention of 1969, subject to the following:

1. Certain non-substantive additions and corrections snown on a "marked" copy of the Proposed Charter returned to the Church are to be incorporated therein and the Proposed Charter is to be recaptioned "THE MEMORIAL CHURCH OF ST. PAUL, OVERBROOK - RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION" to conform to the requirements of the Pennsylvania Not-For-Profit Code.

2. Review and revision of the current Bylaws of the Church to conform them to the Restated Articles of Incorporation. In this regard the Vestry may wish to refer to the Model Bylaws set forth in the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania (1982 Edition), a copy of which has been supplied, and the letter of January 5, 1983 from the Chairman of the Committee on Incorporation to Mrs. Betty Anderson.

3. The Restated Articles of Incorporation need to be adopted by the members of the Church at a duly called meeting.

4. Upon submission of the Restated Articles of Incorporation to the Committee on Incorporation, its chairman will request the Secretary of the Diocese to issue a certificate indicating compliance with the Canons of the Diocese. Approval by Convention is not required.

2. St. Mark's Episcopal Church, HoneyBrook.

The Revised Articles of Incorporation and Revised Bylaws of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Honey Brook, in the form approved by the members of the Church at the Annual Meeting thereof on April 12, 1982 have been reviewed and approved by the Committee on Incorportion as being in substantial conformity with the Model Articles of Incorporation adopted by the Convention of 1969 and the Model Bylaws set forth in the current edition (1982) of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese and the same need not be submitted to Convention for approval. The Committee on Incorporation requests that the Secretary of the Diocese issue a certificate indicating compliance with the Canons of the Diocese.

3. St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh.

An Amendment of Article VI (Members) of the Articles of Incorporation of St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh duly approved by the Vestry at a regular meeting on December 16, 1981 and by the members of the corporation at the annual meeting on February 28, 1982 has been reviewed and approved by the Committee on Incorporation as being in substantial conformity with the Model Articles of Incorporation adopted by the Convention of 1969 and the Amendment need not be submitted to Convention for approval. The Committee on Incorporation requests that the Secretary of the Diocese issue a certificate indicating compliance with the Canons of the Diocese.

4. All Saint's Church Wynnewood

An Amendment of Article 9 (Property) of the Charter of Incorporation of All Saints' Church, Wynnewood, duly approved by the members of the corporation at the annual meeting thereof on January 31, 1972, has been reviewed and approved by the Committee on Incorporation as being in substantial conformity with the Model Articles of Incorporation adopted by the Convention of 1969 and the Amendment need not be submitted to Convention for approval. The Committee on Incorporation requests that the Secretary of the Diocese issue a certificate indicating compliance with the Canons of the Diocese.

5. St. James' Church, Perkiomen.

At a regular meeting held on December 15, 1982 the Vestry of St. James' Church, Perkiomen amended the Bylaws to change the stated date of the Annual Meeting of the Corporation from the last Sunday in January to the last Sunday in April. Advice of this change was given to the Committee on Incorporation but requires no action by the Committee.

6. Good Shepherd Church, Hilltown.

Amendments to Articles 7 (Sections 2 & 3), 9 (Sections 3 & 4) and 12 (Section 1) of the Articles of Incorporation of Good Shepherd Church, Hilltown, duly approved by the Vestry at a meeting on April 19, 1982 and the members of the corporation at the annual meeting thereof on April 25, 1982, have been reviewed and approved by the Committee on Incorporation as being in substantial conformity with the Model Articles of Incorporation adopted by the Convention of 1969 and the Amendments need not be submitted to Convention for approval. The Committee on Incorporation requests that the Secretary of the Diocese issue a certificate indicating compliance with the Canons of the Diocese.

7. Amendment to "Proposed By-Laws for an Incorporated Church" as contained in Constitution and Canons (1982 Edition)

The Committee on Incorporation recommends for adoption by Convention the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That Article 1, Sec. 1, of "Proposed By-Laws for an Incorporated Church" as the same appears in the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese (1982 Edition) be amended to read:

ARTICLE 1
of the Members of the Corporation
and the Qualification of Voters

Sec. 1. The members of the Corporation qualified to vote at elections of members of the Vestry and on all questions which may come before any meeting of the Corporation shall be those persons otherwise qualified under Article 6 of the Articles of Incorporation who shall appear on the books of the Corporation to have contributed to its support not less than five dollars per year in the calendar year in which such election or meeting is being held and in the calendar year immediately preceding such calendar year.
(underscoring reflects amendment)

Explanation: The present language for which the underscored language is substituted reads "...during each of the two successive years immediately preceding such election or meeting." There have been several recent instances of differences of opinion as to the time-frame covered by "the two successive years" phrase and the Committee feels the least restrictive interpretation as reflected in the amendment is preferable.
